

Support for Deaf & Hard of Hearing students: traditional model

Traditional NTID model for supporting Deaf & Hard of Hearing students has two dimensions:

- 1) provision of appropriate access* during class
- 2) provision of faculty tutoring outside of class.

The main forms of in-class access include sign-language interpreting, note-taking, and real-time captioning (known as c-print)

