A. Know the purpose of the e-portfolios.
B. Know what you want to communicate.
C. Know who your audience is.
D. Know why you want to be memorable.

E-portfolio

- With so little time and not much to do, it is easy to forget the importance of e-portfolios.
- They are simply used to document your experiences.
- They are easier to access and understand.
- It's important to document the things that you said and did before creating your e-portfolios.