

CURRENT:

C. INSTITUTE WRITING COMMITTEE

To supervise the implementation of these objectives, Rochester Institute of Technology establishes the Institute Writing Committee. The Committee will be chaired by the dean of the College of Liberal Arts or designee. It will include representatives from each college, the Learning Development Center, and the English Language Center. Representatives will be chosen through mechanisms developed in each organizational unit and will serve two-year terms with the possibility of reappointment. The Committee will report annually to the chief academic officer and to the Academic Senate on its success in fulfilling the goals and objectives of this writing policy.

REVISION:

C. INSTITUTE WRITING COMMITTEE

The Rochester Institute of Technology establishes the Institute Writing Committee. The Committee will be chaired by the Provost or designee. It will include representatives from each college, the Academic Support Center, the First-Year Writing Program, and the English Language Center. Representatives will be chosen through mechanisms developed in each organizational unit and will serve two-year terms with the possibility of reappointment. The committee will develop recommendations for realizing the goal of effective writing across the curriculum for consideration by the ICC and Academic Senate.
