Dr. Robert F. Panara

"Deaf People in Literature/Film"
Suggested Activities for Teachers/Students

TEXTS & FILMS/TV SPECIALS

The following is a list of suggested works that may be useful for study and viewing for hearing impaired students at the Junior and Senior High School level:

I. FICTION (Novels)

II. FICTION (Drama) & NON-FICTION (DRAMA)
Bibliography/Filmography
Dr. Robert F. Panara

"Deaf People in Literature/Film"
Suggested Texts/Films (cont'd.)

III. NON-FICTION

1. Deaf Heritage: A Narrative History of Deaf America

2. Great Deaf Americans

3. Gallaudet: Friend of the Deaf
   by Etta DeGering; Gallaudet, 1968.

4. Black and Deaf in America

5. Deaf Women

6. Deaf Persons in the Arts & Sciences
   by Harry and Bonnie Lang; Greenwood Press (Conn.), 1995.

IV. MOTION PICTURE FILMS (Feature Length)

1. Voices - Captioned Films for the Deaf

2. Amy - Captioned Films for the Deaf

3. The Miracle Worker - Captioned Films for the Deaf

4. The Heart Is A Lonely Hunter - Captioned Films for the Deaf

V. TV Movie Specials/Serials

1. Dummy (CBS) not captioned

2. Silent Victory: The Story of Kitty O'Neil (CBS) not captioned

3. And Your Name Is Jonah (CBS) not captioned

4. Deaf Friend: "James At 15" Series - (NBC) not captioned

5. A Summer To Remember - (CBS) Captioned

VI. VIDEOTAPES (Deaf Heritage/Success Stories)

1. Have You Heard About the Deaf?
   NAD (Sign/Voice/Captions) 35 min.

2. Famous Deaf Americans - Captioned Films Part 1, 30 min. (S/V/C

3. Famous Deaf Americans - Captioned Films Part 2, 30 min. (S/V/C