Student Information System Training

Welcome to the new SIS training website

RIT is in the process of implementing a new student information system (SIS) that will change and enhance many of the processes that students, faculty, staff, and advisors rely on today. In order to ensure a smooth transition from our legacy systems to the new SIS, we are posting a series of tutorials and how-to guides to train the campus on key processes in the new system. As new functions and processes become available in the new SIS, we will continue to publish new training materials. In some cases in-person, instructor-led training sessions will be open for registration.

In the left-hand navigation you will find links to an overview of the new SIS, training materials sorted by your role at RIT, a system launch timeline, training calendar, plus support and contact information.
