On first looking into Chapman's Homer

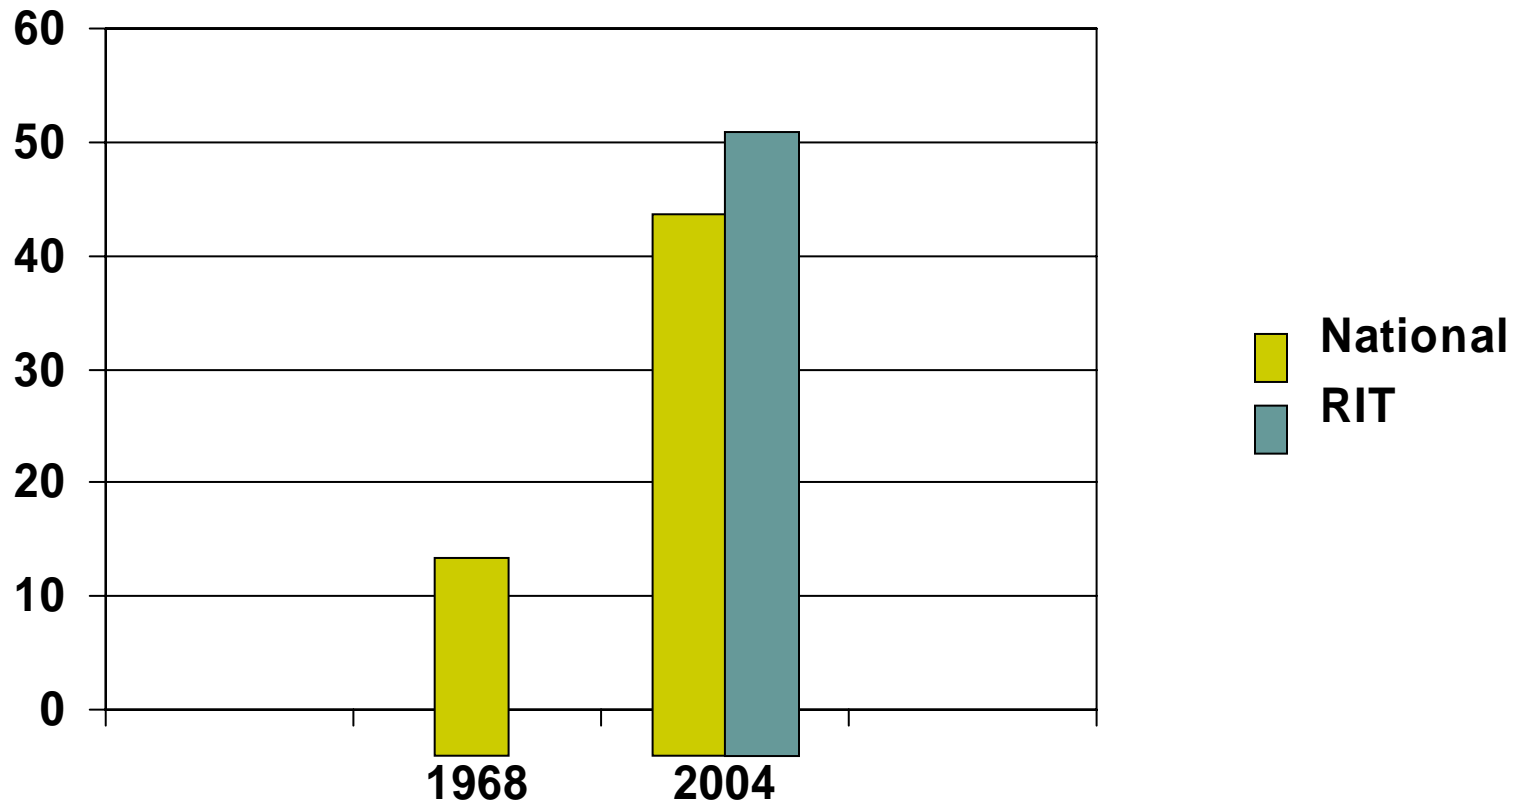

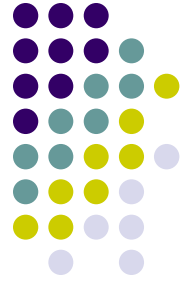

Much have I travell'd in the realms of gold,
And many goodly states and kingdoms seen;
Round many western islands have I been
Which bards in fealty to Apollo hold.
Oft of one wide expanse had I been told
That deep-brow'd Homer ruled as his demesne;
Yet did I never Breathe its pure serene
Till I heard Chapman speak out loud and bold:
Then felt I like some watcher of the skies
When a new planet swims into his ken;
Or like stout Cortez when with eagle eyes
He star'd at the Pacific--and all his men
Look'd at each other with a wild surmise--
Silent, upon a peak in Darien.

What is the greatest benefit of the Learning Community model for students?

- “It allows a group of students to really get to know each other well and form good study groups.”
- “Closeness to discuss problems pertaining to the coursework.”
- “Makes it easier to find help outside of class.”
- “It allows students to be more comfortable working together in groups in order to get work done.”
- “You can more easily develop relationships with fellow students to do homework and stuff together.”
- “Really interacting with other students from the same major and getting to learn and share special talents to complete assignments and projects.”
- “We fared much better in class because we were able to discuss problems we had with each other outside of class.”
- “Share ideas among fellow LC students. Gives you people to look to for help.”
