Class of '42 Holds "Hard Times" Party

"Hard-times" was the theme for the Junior class party held last Saturday evening in Clark Union. Members of the Junior class and their guests wore old clothes to the party and a "loving cup" was presented to Walt Chase and Miggs Austin as the worst-dressed couple attending the party.

Many varieties of dancing, including the broom-stick dance and the Paul Jones dance, were held during the course of the evening. Refreshments were served to wind up the evening.

Rita Greenwood, Louise Emes, Ozzie Button, Bill Scanlon, Gene Paulding and Rosemary Doerr were the committee who made arrangements for the party.

Riding Club Schedules Banquet, Horse Show

Dates for the two big events on the Riding Club social calendar—the annual Riding Club Banquet and the annual Horse Show—have been set for Apr. 5 and May 9.

Edith Hale's will be the scene of the banquet on Apr. 5 where a chicken dinner, a short talk on horsemanship by Major Dickenson, former commander of the 121st Cavalry, and dancing afterwards to the music of Larry Smith is scheduled.

Accommodations are now being made and members should get their tickets as soon as possible.

The annual Horse Show on May 9 will close the year's activities of the club. This popular event will be held at the Marsh Road Stables. Besides horsemanship exhibits, games and jumping will add variety and thrills.

Council Discusses Representation

An incomplete method of representation at RAMI was brought to light at the recent Student Council meeting as a result of Council discussions with Institute classes. The principle knot occurred in co-op courses where some departments contain both an A block and B block representative while other departments had only one Council member per class.

Considerable discussion took place on the relative advantages of the two systems, and on the matter of Industrial Arts representation where overlapping boundaries occur.

Still another point discussed was attendance of elected representatives. In this case, it was found that some departments have not been consistently accounted for at Council meetings partially due to faulty elections.

Resulting from the entire discussion was the call for a committee to formulate a definite plan for student representation. The committee is to be formed this week so as to have the plan worked out by the end of the incoming block.

Religious Seminar Planned

At the suggestion of Reverend Murray A. Cayley of the First Presbyterian Church, an open discussion of religion is being planned for the near future.

Members of the Student Council are considering Clark Union as the place for such a meeting which would be open to all students and would be an informal session covering all phases of religion.

RAMI Has Successful Sports Season

The Blue and Grey basketball team had the most successful season in eight years, according to Coach Lee Fox. They go on record as winning nine games and losing seven, a winning percentage of .562.

Summary of the Team scores:

Food Students Go On Field Trips

The freshman Food students visited the Gleason Works Cafeteria to watch the equipment being installed by the Holidierle Brothers on Monday afternoon, while the junior Food students visited Swift & Co.

Seniors Dine And Dance Tomorrow

On Saturday, the first day of Spring, (March 22) the Seniors will dine and dance at their first Dinner Dance in two years. The dance will be held in the mezzanine ballroom of the Hotel Sagamore. Dinner will be served at 8:00, and dancing will continue until one. Darrel Gifford and his band will furnish the music. The Dormitory girls who attend the dance will have 1:30 permission. Up until last year, a Senior Dinner Dance was one of the "expected" social functions of the school. Due to technical difficulties the Seniors last year had none. The class of '39 held theirs, which was informal at the Brooklee Country Club. This year the dance is to be semi-formal, which allows the girls to dress in dinner dresses and the boys to be comfortable in dark suits or tuxes instead of the customary tails.

Tickets are priced at one dollar per person, and the entire affair is "couples only." The Senior class is paying for part of the tickets.

George Kupferschmid is general chairman of the dance, aided by Dick Eisenberg, orchestra and tickets; Betty Sears, menu; John Bowlan and Dottie Holt, publicity. Tickets for the dance may be obtained from Betty Booden and Betty Sears, Foods; John Bowlan and Eleanor Brockmyre, Art; Dick Eisenberg and Art Grabb, Mechanical; George Kupferschmid and Natalie Foster, Retailing; Clayto Olney, Electrical; and Bill Dellenbeck, Photo-Tech.

Two Mechanicals Given CAA Licenses

The Mechanical Department has been represented by Joseph Navik and Bob Kessel in the government expansion program for civilian pilots.

The Civil Aeronautics Authority has granted both boys private pilot licenses. Joseph Navik is at present taking an advanced course in aerobatics. He is flying a new Waco primary army trainer, PT 14.

Mr. Brainard Plehn, member of the Mechanical faculty, has proven the boys' ability by sampling their flying. He is extremely interested in becoming a pilot himself.

Unionisms

Clark Union has been fortunate in its faculty advisers, for Burton Stratton devoted much time to the project, and saw it through its first year and a half of existence. Now that Stratton's new position requires much time, Alfred Davis, who has been acting adviser for the Student Council all this year, has assumed the faculty advisory role for the Union.

Taking up duties recently relinquished by Mrs. Frances McCullough, Mrs. Gertrude Marcus is now assistant counselor. Many students remember Mrs. Marcus most happily, for she helped out here when she was Miss Wutti last year.

Yes, we know that the artistic sign "Student Center," still pendants (if there is such a verb) from one of the columns of the front porch, and we know that such a place is non-existent. Given time, the committee that is appointed to replace it with a "Clark Union" will remove the old symbol. Rome wasn't built in a day, even if the present Roman Empire seems to be crumbling rapidly.

That bridge table frame-up to sing "Happy Birthday" to their psychology teacher whose natal anniversary came the day before the Ides did not work, for not being aware that he was a year older the proverbial absent-minded professor joined in and sang more lustily than any of the would-be apple-polishers.

In prominent two-column, front page display the picture of a group of students playing checkers here appears in the spring edition of "The Alumni Mirror." The photograph was taken by Herb Gurian who has presented a copy to the Union with the modest mandate that it be relegated to the waste basket! Instead it graces the record cabinet.

Bob Matthews now has a score of pipes; Mickey Rooney has several hundred. Bob often jots down tunes that come into his head; Mickey has composed a symphony. Bob and Mickey were born on the same day in the Sign of Libra twenty years ago. And still some of you skeptics scoff at astronomic phenomenalism.

With a $2.50 new supply of phonograph needles, secured by John Bowllan, it is hoped that no more need be purchased this school year. Following several parties, operators have failed to return needles remaining in the book always supplied for closed events. Explanation: "I left them in my other pants."

Many have expressed satisfaction because the Union red-white and-blue flag is displayed in the game room, and they have pronounced that patriotic poem posted in the hall a first rate piece of writing. It is done by Mary Carolyn Davies of Portland, Oregon, well known to folk who come from the Pacific coast.

Paul Preo, whose name really is Briand de Boisange, had to wait many thirty minutes recently, for the coke machine registered "Empty," and there were 73 bottles lined up in the cases and on the floor. An S. O. S. phone call brought the driver, so Paul's morning libation routine still remains undisturbed.

"I've been in Sing Sing," Michael Castellano is reputed to have announced in one of his classes, later explaining that he had visited N. Y.'s bastille. Michael never stops with one load of records, but plays four or five without a pause except to change the discs—could there be any connection with singing, or Sing-Sing, or mere synopsations?

Don't forget to sign up that your organization will be responsible during closing events for loss or damage to property belonging to the Union. For instance, Rifa Greenwood and Louise Emes signed for the Junior party; Don Stevenson and Herbert Stanford for the Phi Sigma Phi; William Dellenback, and Lauius Pavledes for the Chi Delta Phi; and Barbara Maulbetsch, Jack DeJelys and "Ranger," for the Riding Club.

For the duration of ten minutes at least last Friday the Counselor preferred brunettes, for Betty Boden brought in two decks of pinochle cards to replace a set that disappeared at the senior party. A blond was responsible for the loss of the cards, new ones.

For the first time this year Frank Eaton, one of those ex-cons, called, chiefly for the purpose of hearing music appreciation program, and he agreed with others that the phonograph was one of the finest he had heard. That recent explanation in the Psimar that "ex-con" means "Ex-Convocationalist," cleared up a lot of gloom.

Glee Club Gives Good Performance; Band Makes Hit In Spring Concert

The concert of the Glee Club and the newly organized Institute band proved to be a big success last Friday evening in the Eastman Hall. This was the Glee Club's annual spring concert and the band's first since its organization early this winter.

Both the Glee Club and the band gave very good performances. The rendering of the numbers showed many hours of practice.

Male Quartet Featured

The male quartet composed of Mr. Chesteen Kendall, Mr. Duncan Seavy, Mr. Alfred Davis and Donald Warren were featured in "Climbing Up the Mountain," "The Story of the Tack," "Kentucky," and "Memories." The quartet sang without piano accompaniment and the blending of their voices was very pleasing.

The program included "The Bells of St. Mary," "Sing Me to Sleep," "The Shadow March," "Oh! Mary Don't You Weep," a medley of Old Favorites and "Kiss in the Dark" by the Glee Club, a soprano solo "Sweetheart" by Jean Phillips and a flute solo "Robin Adair" by Wesley Woodman.

The Glee Club was under the direction of Chesteen E. Kendall and was accompanied by Mrs. Gilbert Quinn.

Band Pulls Surprises

Following the Glee Club's half of the concert the band followed up with a very lively session of overtures, novelties, marches and selections.

The band began its concert with the playing of the Institute's "Alma Mater." It continued with an overture "Fortuna," a novelty "Lassus Trombone" bringing back the days of the minstrel shows that were popular on the radio some time ago, a selection "Campus Memories," "Let Me Call You Sweetheart" featuring a trombone solo, and "Teddy Bear Picnic."

At this point of the program the band pulled a fast one on the audience. The program scheduled the "Star Spangled Banner" and with the motion of the director's arms the audience arose to its feet. They quickly sat down, however, for to their surprise the band had extended its program to include a number of marches—"The NC-4," "The Thunderer," and "Our Director." The program closed with the playing of the national anthem.

The band was under the direction of Mr. William Popowych and is composed of both students and faculty members.

Dancing followed the concert to music over a public address system.

Home Ec Girls Study Chinaware

The General Home Economics class went on field trips to Sibley, Lindsay, & Curr Co. and the Tice & Gates Co. recently, to study chinaware.

Mr. Voigt, buyer of the china department at Sibley, Lindsay, & Curr Co., spoke to the class about chinaware, and displayed merchandise.

Mr. Tice, of Tice & Gates, talked about chinaware with the group.

The girls were especially interested in the Tice & Gates china-ware exhibition, and a movie illustrating the manufacture of spode china.

SWEEPINGS

SORORITIES

Dear Snop,

After reading the results of the student poll and the suggestions made, our Sweepings' editor resigned and after searching high and low, we found someone willing to undertake the task.

'Tis said that "In spring a young man's 'fancy' turns." We find it's true and if you don't believe it, ask Stan Keller.

Bill Scanlon and Claire Van Winkle seem to be hitting it off together pretty well as are Don Johns and Ann Gustin, and Ed Soman and Marilyn Smith. Ray "God's Gift to the Women" Russell has been blitzing Dot Work of Kent Hall lately.

Was sitting in Rudner's last Friday evening and saw Dixie Smith faint. She claims it was the sugar she ate but one never knows, does one?

Loren Spero's heartbeat quickened when someone told him Nan Riess was coming back tomorrow, but he claims he doesn't believe it.

Overheard Joe Meyers telling Shirley Rupright that he only went out with three girls in his life. 'Tis hard to believe, Joe. In fact it's so hard to believe that I don't believe it.

Sure had a lot of fun at the Juniors' "Hard-Times" party at Clark Union last Saturday night. Most of the persons came stag but we saw Louise Emes and Bud Lewis come together. Rita Greenwood came with Jerry Rollins; Virginia Kitchen with Joe Ryan; Marion Fox with Verge Vetterlind and Nicky Sozzi with Bob Wilferth. Megs Austin came with her "mopasins" and, by the way, Megs and Walt Chase won the "loving cup" for being the worse dressed couple present.

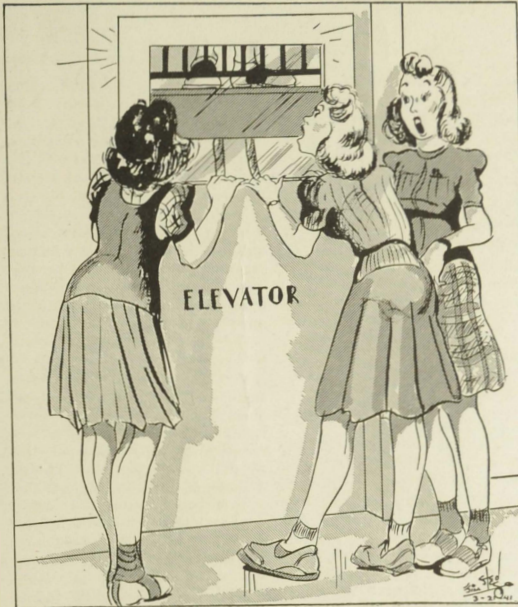

See Clarice Fuller and Rene Hecker together a lot. Clarice tells me that it's purely business, and that they discuss Grace Vary Renee's steady.

Gordon "Fireball" Perkins, prominent Electrical Junior, is anticipating a "sparking good time" one of these Saturday nights when Joe Ryan fixes him up with a blind date.

Merlyn Weeks, another Electrical, seems to do all his courting in the library—on the side, Merlyn, why don't you bring a few of those nurse-friends from Buffalo down?

Who is the brilliant-looking member of the Mechanical junior class known as "The Brain"?

Helen Rowe, new Mechanical secretary, has changed her eating place. Seems all the fellows stared

"It's Sue; stuck between third floor . . . and her date's waitin' downstairs!"

Printers Visit Lawyers Co-operative Publishing Company

The combined senior and freshman classes of the Printing and Publishing Department made a tour of the Lawyers' Co-operative Publishing Co. last Friday. Arrangements were made by Donald Ritchie, instructor of Technical Problems.

at her in the Cafeteria and she tells me she got "so nervous that she could hardly eat."

Didn't hear from Harold Zingerline about how he made out with Pat this weekend. No news is good news, eh, Snop?

"Dear Jojo," writes one of our readers. "Women are funny people. I can't get along with them and I can't get along without them. What shall I do?" All I can write in reply to that question is that your guess is as good as mine.

Joc Woodward really "pasted her ears back" with rubber cement, and is now wearing the latest thing in bandages.

Seems that is all the dirt we can find for this week.

Bye now,
"Jojo"

Art Student Falls Into Genesee River

Glenn Sullivan, Freshman art student, outdid the proverbial absent-minded professor while oil-painting near the Genesee River recently when he stepped back to look at his canvas and tumbled down a 25-foot embankment into the river.

Fortunately, the water at that point was not deep, because Glenn was wearing hip boots and would have been unable to swim to safety. He built a fire, dried himself off, and then finished his picture.

The chipmunks and the squirrels are guarding his oil paints at present, because they were too heavy to carry up the embankment. Speculation is still lively whenever art students meet, as to whether the eventual coming of spring was responsible for the mishap, or whether Glenn just heard that rhapsody.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE PSIMAR

It seems that OUR Clark Union has become nothing more than another Bridge Club. Don't you think there is at least something we can do about this situation?

A Critic

Delta Omicron
Delta Omicron's new pledges were formally initiated Monday night in the candle-lit living room of Bevier.

Gaiety was added to the occasion when the old and new sisters gathered for cake and coffee.

The new members are Marion Jameson, Betty Shamble, Olive Kingsley, Doris Van Der Meid, Jan Zogg, Jane Reilly, Doris Kent, Marie Balian and Marion Chapman.

Sigma Kappa Delta

Sigma Kappa Delta held its formal initiation in the dormitory lounge on Monday evening, March 17, at 8:30. The Misses Doris Davie, Ann Gustin, Betty McLeod, Betty Case, Janet Tunison and Shirley Frape were initiated into the sorority and were presented with pins.

The fifteenth birthday of the sorority was celebrated with a large gold and blue birthday cake which was cut by the oldest member of our sorority, Mrs. Haner.

Miss Doris Davie was elected to attend the Intersorority meeting every other Monday evening.

Phi Upsilon Phi

Phi Upsilon Phi sorority held their formal initiation meeting on Monday, March 17, at Clark Union. Jean Randall and Janet Roberts were in charge of the social meeting which followed the initiation.

Ruth Seibert, Jeanne Adams, Barbara Coe, Mary Skivington, Dorothy Griffiths, Jackie Pfleeger, Lois Coleman, Ann Zutes, Patricia Holmes, Dariel Graham and Dorothy Kitzing were formally initiated into the sorority at this meeting.

M. S. A. Banquet Hall Changed

The M. S. A. banquet hall has been changed from the Normandie to the Roosevelt Apartments.

The program, which includes Landis S. Smith as principal speaker, has suffered no change. The entertainment will include a song fest, led by Chesteen Kendall, and a variety program, arranged by Bill Salie and Jim Tobin. They promise something unusual, such as an "oddities in the news" program.

The ticket committee reports that the tickets are selling very well and this banquet, which is an annual affair, has upheld a tradition of the Mechanical Students Association for the past 14 years and promises to continue in the same vein.

Glee Club Ends Season with Banquet

The Glee Club season came to a close last Wednesday evening at their annual banquet held at the Normandie Apartments.

Megs Austin was the successful candidate for the president; Rita Greenwood, vice-president; Bob Greenfield, secretary; Grace Vay, librarian and Clyde Johnson, treasurer. Retiring officers are Paul Pavelock, president; Marcelline Dempsey, vice-president; Megs Austin, secretary; Eugene Natale, librarian and Don Warren, treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Seavey, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Quinn and Chestnut Kendall were faculty guests.

Arrangements for the banquet were made by Megs Austin, Rita Greenwood, Bob Durward and Jerry Anderson.

Newman Club Elects Officers For Next Year

Election of officers for next year was held by the Newman Club at a meeting Mar. 11. Dan Collins was the successful candidate for the presidency; Rose Bordonaro, vice-president; Bill Baker, treasurer; Rosemary Doerr, secretary; Bob Wolfe, Margaret Wagner and Rosemary Doerr were appointed to work out ideas and plan a skeleton outline on parliamentary law to be presented to the club at the next meeting.

Construction Alumni Hold Reunion

Nine of the fourteen Construction '40 Alumni met recently at Clark Union, and from there adjourned to Foran's for a steak dinner served in the dining room (and not downstairs).

Following the complete satisfaction of the inner-men, they all went out to William Clark's home in Pittsford to play games and reminisce for the remainder of the evening.

Those present were William A. Clark, Walter Brazil, James Coughlin, Stanley Fredman, Robert Goehringer, Forrest Johnston, William Nichols, Bruno Schufari and Michael Serron. Members of the class who were unable to attend include John Carr, Louis Durkee, Charles Gray, Kermit Lewis and Samuel Coluccio.

Ellingson Speaks On Defense

"What Does Industry Contribute to Democracy?" was the title of Dr. Ellingson's talk to the Institute students on Thursday, March 11.

With the present defense program in effect it is necessary, he said, for the country's industry to act as a whole in accordance with the government. This doesn't mean, however, that industry should become, as is its tendency, so organized that the individual is completely swallowed by the whole, but he should have opportunity to express himself and rise in position as his ability allows.

Defense industry does not mean necessarily that when a war is over, there will be a depression. It was because of industry in the last war that automobiles could be made cheap enough for the general public. Airplanes which are being built for defense now could, with minor changes in construction, be made for public use.

Asked what our chances of staying out of war were, Dr. Ellingson replied that he had felt for some time that America should have declared war six months ago. Said he, "America's entering the war would be a tremendous boost to the morale of England, Greece, and the small, hesitant countries in Central Europe and the Near East. It would allow our government to move quickly in planning its defense program and also allow it to pick up undesirable aliens. It probably would not require our sending troops to Europe, but possibly to South America."

Freshmen Plan Easter Party

All Freshman students will have an opportunity to become acquainted with their fellow Freshmen at the Easter Fantasy Freshman Party on April 4.

The Party will be held in the Edith Hale House, 1059 Lake Avenue, and will last from 9 till 1 o'clock. Darrell Gifford and his Band will supply music for dancing. Tickets will be sixty cents a person, and will include refreshments and entertainment.

Fun will be the keynote of the evening, with Easter as its theme. A very special contest will be held, to determine which one of the boys can design the cutest and snappiest Easter Bonnet. There will be an unusual door prize, the nature of which is to be a surprise.

The committee in charge of arrangements is: Elaine Feinberg, general chairman; John Whitman, publicity and orchestra; Robert Perry, who made arrangements for the Edith Hale House; Mary Cunningham, refreshments; Patricia Holmes, in charge of obtaining chaperones; and Mr. Easter Bunny, who was general adviser. Mr. and Mrs. Milton W. McCulough will be chaperones.

Chi Delta Phi Plans Spring Formal

Plans were nearing completion for the Annual Spring Formal of the Chi Delta Phi. It is to be held May 3 at the Oak Hill Country Club. Harry Rennell is chairman with Bill Dellenback, Bud Ford and Louis Paveledes assisting him.

Order Convocation Announcements Now

The Senior Convocation announcements and personal cards are on display in the Psimar case in the Eastman building. As all announcements should be in the mail by May 1, the first order will be sent on April 1 and the second on April 28.

Announcements are twelve cents a piece, and with every order for 100 personal cards, five free announcements are given.

Orders may be given to any of the following: Armand LaMay, Art School, Martin Grossfeld, Photo-Tech; Frank Kovarik, Printing; Stan Lescaiboura, Construction; Doris Gordon, Home Economics; Dick Eisenberg, Mechanical; Rocky Bills, Instrument Makers; Alfred Johns, Electrical; Frank Osika, Chemical; Betty Booden, Foods; and Pauline Weir, Retailing.

To avoid confusion, announcements should be paid for at time of ordering.
