The Clark Union Report was given by Diana Lea. Two boys are prohibited from coming in C.U. this week because of wrestling. The radio and the jute box are to be repaired. A new Woodstock typewriter can be purchased for $150. ~~Two~~ <sup>Two</sup> used typewriters for $150. Before anything is decided Remington typewriters are to be checked on. The ping pong room is to be painted and the Union will be cleaned over the holidays. Also seven new records have been purchased. The piano is not to be played during the noon hour. The closing of the Union at noon on Wed. was approved.

Irwin Dixon gave a report on the Athletic Committee. R.I.T. has offers from U.B. for wrestling and fencing but there is little or no equipment.

Lenord Morris reported that <sup>the section</sup> the Student Directories are practically ready to be printed.

The Carnegie Music Committee is having their first musical tonight

Bud Gore reported on the entertainment for the Xmas pageant to be given December 17th. Council approved the idea.

It was suggested that a scrap book be kept with pictures of outstanding school events for future students reference.

Cliff O'Neil, Ed Pollack, and Joe Hester from the Publishing and Printing suggested that council appropriate money for the purchase of a set of sound equipment and a projector as there is a lot of excellent film available. The student interest, availability of a room, and the cost are to be checked on.

New business brought up was the need of an additional $350. for bowling making a total of $1250. The appropriation was approved.

The meeting was adjourned at 5:20.
