Ritter Clark Memorial ice rink, Dr. Partridge spoke to Student Council members on such issues as: maintenance, expenses, sources of income, student, public and private parties, present regulations, prices,
etc.

There was also a question period concerning the Snack Bar. Mr. Rusitzky was on hand to answer questions on such issues as prices, profits and service.

CONSTITUTION COMMITTEE

As the result of a discussion on Spring Weekend profits a motion was made and carried that until altered by future Student Councils, all net profits from Spring Weekend will be turned over to the Scholarship Committee to be used as Student Council scholarships.

SOCIAL PROGRAMMING

In answer to questions concernings Student Council's support of the Masquers Guild Costume Ball on February 9, 1957 a motion was made and carried to accept the attached recommendation of the Social Committee. An amendment was made and defeated as to point two (2) under "details of recommendation." The amendment was that 75% be set aside for Student Council to use as it saw fit.
