Election Board of Control

Joe Zigadlo moved to recommend to the Board the following: that elections be held on April 23, the assembly on April 22, with campaign week to begin on April 16, advertising starting on April 14, in order that the election campaign will not conflict with Spring Weekend and the IFC ISC weekend. There was considerable discussion as to changing the campaign week from Monday to Monday until Wednesday to Wednesday. The motion to recommend was passed.

The Board has defined advertising as "posters and other visual media," and campaigning as "any activity for the seeking of votes by a candidate or his campaign committees other than advertising."

It was recommended that campaign funds be allotted to each candidate by the Student Council in the amount of $25 for each presidential candidate and $15 for each vice-presidential candidate. This was so moved and seconded.

Joe Zigadlo explained that campaign members members must submit to the Board a complete accounting of whatever monies are spent.

Mr. Belknap questioned the allocation of money at all. It was suggested that all money spent, whether allocated or from the candidates own pocket, be accounted for.

There was much discussion on whether or not to allocate any money at all to candidates, and if so, how much, and should it be accounted for, if candidates can use money from their own pockets.

Mr. Belknap suggested that each candidate rally funds from his constituents and backers.

The previous question was moved, seconded, and defeated.

It was moved to amend the motion to limit the amount of money to be given to the candidates.

There was a motion made to table the motion and the motion to amend. This was seconded, and carried by a vote of 28-15.

All plans of candidates will be kept confidential by the Board.

It was moved by Mike Furman that the Election Board of Control outline what will be permitted and what will not be permitted during the election period. The motion was seconded.

Art Pavelle moved to amend the motion to state that the campaign managers will submit to the Board of Control general plans of the campaign. This was seconded and passed.
