The minutes for the previous meeting were read and corrected.

LOUNGE COMMITTEE

Christopher Kellogg, chairman of the Lounge committee reported that Kappa Sigma Kappa is transporting the ping pong tables to be repaired as a special project.

VENDING MACHINES

Because the price of Coca Cola has increased, the company is now charging 6¢ a bottle. If the machine continues to operate at 5¢ cost there will be no profit, and the chief source of income for the lounge committee will be cut off. Richard Samson made a motion seconded by John Honan that the machine be changed to a 6¢ operation.

SPRING WEEKEND

Dave Schuckman, chairman of the Spring Weekend committee, said that a full report of plans will be submitted two weeks before Spring Weekend.

BULLETIN BOARD

group of President Anderson announced that no ~~organiza-~~ ^{unorganized} tion is sanctioned to advertise private parties on Institute bulletin board.

LETTER TO POLICY COMMITTEE

The letter to the Policy Committee ^{is} being prepared and will be completed in plenty of time.

CAFETERIA

No cafeteria hours for this summer schedule have as yet been planned.

MUSIC ROOM

The Music room is operating partly and will be open tomorrow noon.

WRESTLING TEAM

There was a request from Coach Fuller for $72.00 to send 3 wrestlers to the N.A.A.U. for 4 days. This would cover their food and lodging. Christopher Kellogg made a motion and David Schukman seconded it to appropriate the money. This is in no way to set a precedent for other organizations to request extra money.

CONSTITUTIONS

The R.I.T. Vets' and Drama Clubs have had their constitutions approved by the Constitution Committee, and they were submitted to Council for final approval. David Schukman made a motion which was seconded by Al Rossetto that these constitutions be accepted by Council. Council then approved these constitutions.
