DIVISION REPORTS

SOCIAL

Tickets for Spring Weekend may be obtained at the door of each event. Or, the complete set of tickets at a reduced rate may be obtained at the book store starting Tuesday or Wednesday for $8. This includes a free weekend booklet. The individual prices are; Friday, free; Saturday aft.; $1.25 per person; Saturday evening, $3.50, and Sun.; $2. per person, or $8.75 per couple.

A count will be taken at the closing meeting of the representatives who will be in Rochester this summer. The summer Social program for summer quarter students will be set up by these representatives with an allocated sum of $600. This group will also start making plans for the coming Freshmen Orientation, Student Union program, and Parent's Weekend.

Mr. Kaplin, the guest speaker at the recent awards banquet, will donate the money he received for speaking, to a charity in the name of the Institute.

INTERNAL AFFAIRS

The proposed 1962-63 budget has been completed. The budget committee is considering the purchase of a bus for the Institute.

Blazer Committee

The prices of blazers have been obtained from area stores. The delay lies with the problem of changing the insignia and the Institute's colors which the administration is now considering.

BUSINESS

Old—none

New

Don Lembeck moved that the proposed 1962-63 budget be accepted. The motion was seconded and discussion followed. Members of the RIT Choralliers, Chess Club, and WITR Radio were present to discuss their respective allocations.

George Murray amended the motion to read "WITR Radio, $500." The motion was carried which means a $521.73 cut in the WITR budget. The main motion was then tabled.

Respectfully submitted,
Kitty Corti
