ELEVENTH ANNUAL RALPH BUNCHE SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM SET FOR APRIL 19 -- On Sunday, April 19, at 2:30 p.m., the Parents and Students Want to Know Group will present their Eleventh Annual Ralph Bunche Scholarship program in the Ingle Memorial Auditorium of R.I.T.'s College-Alumni Union. Over the years the group has provided a scholarship fund so that area students could continue their studies.

The program will include music and presentations to Mrs. Milton Banks, Mrs. Clarence S. Lunt and Mrs. Harper Sibley, Sr. for their interest in and encouragement of education for young people.

Established in 1958 to promote an appreciation of Negro history and to acquaint students with educational opportunities, the Parents and Students Want to Know Group has helped over 200 young people from the Rochester area to achieve a college education.

Those wishing to make contributions can make their checks payable to the Ralph Bunche Scholarship Fund and mail it to Mrs. James H. Hamm, 301 Adams Street, Rochester, New York 14608. All contributions are tax deductible.
