

news and events

Published in the Office of Public Relations

Rochester Institute of Technology

COMING

IN THE SECOND OF TWO, graphic arts programs sponsored by the Extended Services Division will be conducted June 15-26. Coordinated by Hector H. Sutherland, director, School of Printing, the programs were designed for personnel from printing and allied fields to survey the printing industry.

HIGHSCHOOLERS EXPLORE MEDICAL TECHNOLOGY AS A CAREER, in an Extended Services seminar for June 21-25. For junior and senior high school boys and girls, the program will provide an overview of medical technology. Participants will live on campus, and use regular classroom and laboratory facilities. In addition, the high school students will be exposed to college life in general. Enrollments may be made through R.I.T.'s Extended Services Division, 1 Lomb Memorial Drive, Rochester, N.Y. 14623.

MONDAY, JUNE 1

PRE-REGISTRATION SUMMER EVENING SESSION THROUGH JUNE 3 -- Registrants coming to the campus are asked to report to the Registrar's Office in the George Eastman Memorial Building, One Lomb Memorial Drive, Rochester, New York 14623.

EUROPEAN CALENDAR EXHIBITION REMAINS UNTIL JUNE 8 -- 400 calendars representing 10 different countries will continue to be on display in the College-Alumni Union until June 8.

FINAL EXAMS START -- Examinations in all Schools will be held from Monday, June 1 through Thursday, June 4.

TUESDAY, JUNE 2

PRE-REGISTRATION SUMMER EVENING SESSION CONTINUES -- See instructions, as of June 1.

DENSITOMETRY SEMINAR JUNE 2-4 -- Techniques for control of photographic images, both continuous tone and halftone, will be examined in a seminar for the Graphic Arts Industries June 2-4 in R.I.T.'s School of Printing. For further information contact A. Robert Maurice, assistant director of the Extended Services Division of R.I.T.'s College of Continuing Education (464-2224).

EXAMS CONTINUE

PRE-REGISTRATION SUMMER EVENING SESSION CONTINUES -- See instructions, as of June 1.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 3

EXAMS CONTINUE

THURSDAY, JUNE 4

EXAMS CONTINUE

FRIDAY, JUNE 5

EXAMS OVER -- Phew!

REHEARSAL 9 A.M. WAR MEMORIAL -- All participants in the Convocation ceremonies are urged to attend the rehearsal which will start promptly at 9 a.m.

NATHANIEL ROCHESTER SOCIETY HONORS UDALL, JUNE 5 -- A special reception and dinner will be given by the R.I.T. Nathaniel Rochester Society in the Service Dining Room of the College-Alumni Union, Friday, June 5 at 6 p.m. (See Convocation stories in "Briefs").

SATURDAY, JUNE 6

R.I.T. ANNUAL CONVOCATION EXERCISES -- War Memorial - 10:30 a.m., Saturday, June 6. Former U.S. Secretary of the Interior, Stewart L. Udall, is convocation speaker. Subject: "Limits: The Environmental Imperatives of the 1970's."

PARENTS - SENIORS CONVOCATION LUNCHEON -- Following the convocation ceremonies there will be a luncheon in the College-Alumni Union starting at 12:30 p.m., Saturday, June 6. Over 900 parents and seniors are expected to attend.

MONDAY, JUNE 8

SUMMER FOOD SERVICE HOURS CHANGE -- The following food service schedule will be effective as of June 8.

College-Alumni Union: ---

Served Dining Room	- closed all summer.
Cafeteria	- Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.
RITskellar	- closed all summer.

Resident Dining Hall: ---

Monday through Friday,	7 a.m. to 6:30 p.m.
Saturdays,	8 a.m. to 6:30 p.m.
Sundays - breakfast	8 a.m. to 10 a.m.
- lunch	11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

MONDAY, JUNE 8 (cont.)

GRAPHIC ARTS PROGRAM -- The first of two identical two-week programs is scheduled for June 8-19. Intended to survey the printing industry, the program is designed for personnel from printing and allied fields.

SPECIAL ORIENTATION PROGRAM -- Running concurrently for the first four days with the survey program (June 8-12), will be a special graphic arts program designed for a specific company. Companies who sponsor six or more individuals to a course will be presented a program tailored to the needs of those companies.

The above courses, coordinated by Hector H. Sutherland, director of the School of Printing, are sponsored by the Extended Services Division.

EIGHT-WEEK EVENING SUMMER SESSION STARTS, with pre-registration by mail to have been completed by May 29; pre-registration in person, daily (9 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.) through June 3. Classes begin June 8; late registration (if space available) June 8.

TUESDAY, JUNE 9

27TH ANNUAL QUALITY CONTROL STATISTICS PROGRAM STARTS JUNE 9 -- R.I.T.'s 27th annual Statistical Techniques in Quality program begins today and runs through June 18. The course is for technical personnel in chemical and allied industries. Director of the program is Dr. Mason E. Westcott, professor of applied statistics in R.I.T.'s College of Continuing Education. Further information may be obtained from Michael D. Connelly, assistant director of R.I.T.'s Extended Services Division (464-2237).

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 10

CONFERENCE ON PERSONNEL AT R.I.T. METRO CENTER -- Latest techniques in personnel recruitment and selection will be presented from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. in R.I.T.'s Metropolitan Center at 50 West Main Street. Sponsored by the Extended Services Division of R.I.T.'s College of Continuing Education, it will be under the leadership of Dr. Laurence C. Lipsett, director of R.I.T.'s Counseling Center.

THURSDAY, JUNE 11

MINI-CONFERENCE ON DATA PROCESSING FOR SMALL BUSINESS MEN -- "Data Processing for Small Business Men" will be the topic of a conference from 1 to 4 p.m. at R.I.T.'s Metropolitan Center, 50 West Main Street. Sponsored by the Extended Services Division of R.I.T.'s College of Continuing Education, it is under the leadership of Howard R. Holmes, R.I.T.'s director of Information Systems.

ANNUAL R.I.T. RETIREMENT DINNER IN UNION JUNE 11 -- The dinner honoring those employees retiring and those marking 25 years of service will begin at 6 p.m. in the Service Dining room of the College-Alumni Union. Speaker is James (Jim) Blakely, Editor of HELP, the Democrat and Chronicle's Consumer assistance column. (See "News Briefs" for list of honorees).

FRIDAY, JUNE 12

SIX SUMMER DAY SESSION ON CAMPUS, for which pre-registration by mail is now in progress and will continue until at least June 12 in all sessions offered. Consult R.I.T.'s Official Bulletin - Summer Session 1970 for details. Copies may be obtained by writing Dr. Norman Flannigan, director, One Lomb Memorial Drive, Rochester, New York 14623.

NEWS BRIEFS

CONVOCATION EVENTS HEADED BY UDALL RECEPTION JUNE 5 --

A reception and dinner will honor Stewart L. Udall, Secretary of the Interior under Presidents Kennedy and Johnson. Given by the Nathaniel Rochester Society of Rochester Institute of Technology, it is to be held in the service dining room of the College-Alumni Union beginning at 6 p.m. The affair is at the invitation of Mr. Gaylord C. Whitaker, chairman of the group's executive committee and Mrs. Louis K. Eilers, co-chairman and wife of Dr. Louis K. Eilers, who was recently named Chairman of the Board of Directors, Eastman Kodak Company.

* * * * *

85th ANNUAL CONVOCATION AT WAR MEMORIAL JUNE 6 -- Over 6000 persons are expected to witness Rochester Institute of Technology's 85th Annual Convocation at 10:30 a.m. on Saturday, June 6. To be held in the Community War Memorial Auditorium, they will witness a record class of 1,931 to be cited for degrees and diplomas.

Commencement speaker will be Stewart L. Udall, former Secretary of the Interior and a long-time fighter for the "new conservation." Mr. Udall's address will be, "Limits: The Environmental Imperatives of the 1970's." Udall, a lawyer and former Congressman (Ariz., 2nd Dist.) is currently Professor of Environmental Humanism at Yale University.

* * * * *

PRESIDENT MILLER AWARDS AT HIS FIRST R.I.T. CONVOCATION --

Dr. Paul A. Miller new President of Rochester Institute of Technology will present awards to the graduates, as follows: Graduates with highest honors, 19; with honors, 198; Masters degrees will be granted to 140 students; 800 will receive bachelor's degrees; 921 associates degrees. In addition 70 others will receive non-degree diploma awards for studies in a wide variety of College of Continuing Education programs.

* * * * *

BOARD CHAIRMAN PRESIDES AND REVEALS NAMES OF OUTSTANDING TEACHERS --

Attorney Arthur L. Stern, chairman of the R.I.T. Board of Trustees, will preside at the Convocation. The Reverend William E. Gibson, R.I.T. Protestant Chaplain will give the Invocation and at the conclusion of the ceremonies the Reverend Gerald J. Appelby, the Roman Catholic Chaplain will pronounce the Benediction.

During the Convocation two members of the R.I.T. faculty will be presented outstanding teaching awards by Dr. Leo F. Smith, special executive assistant to the President. Their identifications will be revealed at that time.

OVER 900 EXPECTED AT PARENT-SENIOR LUNCHEON, following the Convocation. The buffet luncheon to be held in the College-Alumni Union on campus will begin at 12:30 p.m. Servings may be had until 2:30 p.m. The Executive Committee of the R.I.T. Parents Association will be hosts and hostesses.

* * * * *

BEVIER GALLERY SHOWS STUDENTS' WORK, as a closing event of R.I.T.'s 85th Annual Convocation, the Bevier Gallery of the James E. Booth Memorial Building and also the lobby of the Frank E. Gannett Memorial Building will hold showings of students' work from R.I.T.'s College of Fine and Applied Arts and the College of Graphic Arts and Photography.

* * * * *

ALPHA SIGMA LAMBDA BESTOWS HONORS -- At the annual Student Leaders Banquet held Wednesday, May 20 in R.I.T.'s College-Alumni Union, the following students were named to the Alpha Sigma Lambda Honorary Society: Jon L. Roberts, fourth year, photography; Deborah Elsenheimer, fourth year, art and design; Alan J. Ritsko, third year, photography; Oksana Eliaszkewskyj, fourth year, art and design; Lance F. Fredericks, third year, School for American Craftsmen; Joel M. Pollack, fifth year, physics; and Jeffrey Steven Brooks, third year, photography.

Alpha Sigma Lambda was formed in 1964 as an honorary fraternity to honor students who have been outstanding in activities, scholarship and leadership.

* * * * *

R.I.T. STUDENTS CITED FOR LEADERSHIP -- The names of twenty-eight R.I.T. students, will appear in the annual edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. Their names were announced and certificates presented at the annual R.I.T. Students Awards Banquet, held in the College-Alumni Union on Wednesday, May 20. They are: Joel M. Pollack, fifth year, physics; Thomas W. Dougherty, fourth year, business administration; Jon L. Roberts, fourth year, photography; Jeffrey Brooks, third year, photography; Edward S. Steffens, fourth year, business administration; John H. Campbell, fifth year, chemistry; Peter Beesley, fourth year, art and design; Scott Hopwood, third year, business administration; Stephen Jacques, fourth year, printing; Daniel E. Sinto, fourth year, photography; Donald W. Haney, fifth year, electrical engineering; Richard Lem, fourth year, art and design; John C. MacDonald, fourth year, business administration; Gary R. Kolk, third year, business administration; Irving M. "Skip" Blumenthal, third year, printing; John MacLeod, second year, printing; Brian W. Matthews, fifth year, electrical engineering; Lance F. Fredericks, third year, School for American Craftsmen; James C. Hamilton, second year, photography; Bruce D. Nelson, fourth year, electrical engineering; Scott H. Sims, fourth year, photography; Maria T. Rainone, third year, food administration; Bonita J. Marshall, fourth year, business administration; Kathleen T. McGarry, third year, photography; Sandra E. Warcup, third year, retailing; Deborah A. DiBiase, third year, chemistry; Deborah Elsenheimer, fourth year, art and design; and Oksana Eliaszewskyj, fourth year, art and design.

SEVEN R.I.T. GRADUATES ELECTED OUTSTANDING -- Seven Rochester Institute of Technology graduates have been selected for inclusion in the current editions of "Outstanding Young Men of America" or "Outstanding Young Women of America" publications.

The publications yearly honor men and women between the ages of 21 and 35 who have contributed significantly in their careers and in community service.

R.I.T. alumni selected are Mary K. McCartney, Rochester, N.Y.; Susan Scott McNelly, Victor, N.Y.; Freyda Cohen Lazarus, Richmond, Va.; Gene DePrez, Rochester; Robert F. Botsford, Ontario, N.Y.; John M. Sturge, Fairport, N.Y.; and Steven J. Eisenberg, Bronx, N.Y.

* * * * *

KOSOWSKI AND TODD GET TOP ATHLETIC AWARDS -- Dave Kosowski and Pete Todd were named Athlete of the Year and Coach of the Year respectively at Rochester Institute of Technology's 15th annual Athletic Awards Banquet Monday night at RIT's College-Alumni Union.

Kosowski, a junior distance runner from Blasdell, N.Y., was cited for his accomplishments in both cross country and track. He posted a 21-2 record in cross country which broke a national collegiate record for most cross country wins in a season. This Spring Kosowski was undefeated 11-0 in the mile and two-mile events. He also was a co-captain and Upstate New York champion in both cross country and track.

Coach Todd guided RIT's cross country team to an 18-4 mark, which snapped a national record for most wins by a team in a season. Todd's Tigers established a 11-0 record in track and won the Upstate New York Track and Field Championship. The Coach of the Year award was presented by the RIT Varsity Club.

* * * * *

ANNUAL RETIREMENT DINNER JUNE 11 -- The annual R.I.T. Retirement Dinner, honoring those employees retiring and those completing 25 years of service, will be held June 11 in the Service Dining Room of the College-Alumni Union beginning at 6 p.m. Guest speaker for the event is James (Jim) Blakely, Democrat and Chronicle Editor of HELP, a daily column devoted to assisting the harried consumer.

Those being honored upon retirement this year are: Mrs. Dorothy Bickford, (Placement Office Secretary, 11 years); Mrs. Dorothy Brooks, (Associate Professor, College of Business, 28 years - includes 10 years with the School of Commerce); Dr. Mark Ellingson, (43 years of service starting as teacher and wrestling coach in 1926 he "retired" at the end of 1969 after 32 years as President of R.I.T.); Miss Edwina Hogadona, (Dean of the College of Business, 37 years); Mr. Gaetano Manfredi, (Physical Plant, 10 years); Mr. William Toporcer (tennis coach, assistant to the vice president of student personnel services and director of veterans affairs, 25 years); Miss Ada B. Vernon, (Secretary to the president, 32 years); Professor Frans Wildenhain, College of Fine and Applied Arts, School of American Craftsmen, 20 years).

Those joining the 25 Year Club are: Professor Homer Imes (College of Science, School of Chemistry) and Mrs. Jacqueline O'Connell, (Associate Professor College of Fine and Applied Arts, School of Art and Design).

ROBERT S. DUNN ADVANCES -- Effective July 1, Robert S. Dunn who has been an Admissions Counselor in the Registrar's Office since 1968 is being moved up to the post of Assistant Registrar, according to advice submitted by George E.D. Brady, III. Registrar.

* * * * *

CAMPBELL NAMED "BOSS OF THE YEAR" -- Dr. James B. Campbell, vice president of R.I.T.'s Student Personnel Services, has been named "Boss of the Year" by the R.I.T. Chapter of the Professional Business Women's Association. He received the honor at the group's annual tea held on Thursday, May 21, in the Henry Lomb Memorial room of the College of Business.

* * * * *

MOLINARI ELECTED BY COLLEGE HOUSING OFFICERS -- At a recent meeting of the Mortheast Region of the Association of College and University Housing Officers, Miss Deanne Molinari, director of housing for R.I.T. was elected vice chairman. She will be in charge of the group's program for the coming year. In that post she assists the host college (Williams) in planning the 1971 Regional Conference.

* * * * *

DEAN HOGADONE ON SPEAKING CIRCUIT -- Women's role in business, economics, and consumer complaints are the topics of speeches to be presented in June by Miss Edwina B. Hogadone, dean of the College of Business at Rochester Institute of Technology.

Miss Hogadone will speak on the topic "Today's Number One Critic, the Consumer" at a dinner meeting of the Upstate Utilities Home Service Conference June 3 at 6 p.m. at the Flagship Rochester.

"New Opportunities for Women in the Business World" will be Dean Hogadone's topic at a 7 p.m. dinner of the American Production and Inventory Control Society June 8 at Logan's Restaurant.

Dean Hogadone also will participate in the New York State Executive Women's Conference on Economic Development at the Hotel Roosevelt in New York City June 11 and 12. She will report on findings of a manpower and education workshop.

The conference, the first of its kind in the nation, is sponsored by the New York State Women's Council in cooperation with the State Department of Commerce.

* * * * *

RETAILING JUNIOR REPRESENTS R.I.T. -- Sandra E. Warcup, a junior Retailing major, will represent Rochester Institute of Technology students at the New York State Executive Women's Conference on Economic Development for the 70's June 11-12 at the Hotel Roosevelt in New York City.

Miss Warcup, 225 E. Nuyes Blvd., Sherrill, N.Y., will participate in a panel discussion titled "Youth Looks to the Future." She is the outgoing president of Phi Gamma Nu, an honorary sorority of professional business girls.

GUARD ELECTED PRESIDENT OF GUIDANCE ASSOCIATION -- E. Louis Guard, assistant director of admissions at Rochester Institute of Technology, has been elected president of the Genesee Valley Personnel and Guidance Association.

The association includes members from Livingston, Monroe, Ontario, Seneca, Steuben, Wayne, Wyoming, and Yates counties. The goal of the association is to unite all individuals from professional personnel guidance organizations.

* * * * *

CONFERENCE ON PERSONNEL AT R.I.T. METRO CENTER -- The latest techniques in recruiting will be presented in a conference on Techniques of Personnel Recruitment and Selection June 10 from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. in Rochester Institute of Technology's 50 West Main St. Center.

The conference, sponsored by the Extended Services Division of RIT's College of Continuing Education, will explore techniques for recruiting, interviewing, use of application blanks and personnel investigations.

Conference leader is Dr. Laurence C. Lipsett, director of RIT's Counseling Center.

Application for enrollment in the conference may be made by telephoning A. Robert Maurice, assistant director of Extended Services at 464-2217.

* * * * *

MINI-CONFERENCE ON EDP FOR SMALL BUSINESS MEN -- "Data Processing for the Small Businessman" is the topic of a conference June 11 from 1 to 4 p.m. in Rochester Institute of Technology's 50 West Main St. Metropolitan Center.

The educational mini-conference, sponsored by the Extended Services Division of RIT's College of Continuing Education, is geared for persons who represent small or medium-size business and have an interest in data processing.

Conference leader will be Howard R. Holmes, RIT's director of Information Systems. Holmes has been engaged in data processing, business and finance operations for 24 years.

Application for the conference may be made through Roger K. Powell, assistant director of Extended Services at 464-2201.

* * * * *