

news and events

→ Institute Publications

COLLETON

Published in the Office of Public Relations

Rochester Institute of Technology

Vol. III, No. 23

July 5-18, 1971

MONDAY, JULY 5

INSTITUTE HOLIDAY: No day or evening classes

TUESDAY, JULY 6

REGISTRATION: Second two-week (printing and photography) and first three-week (high school and college bound students) summer day sessions; 8-10 a.m.; classes begin 10 a.m.

TALISMAN: "Endless Summer"; Ingle Aud.; 7:30 & 10 p.m.; 50¢.

SATURDAY, JULY 10

MAKE-UP DAY: Classes for summer day session students only, to make up for July 5 holiday.

CU SHOWTIME: "Adventures of Marco Polo"; Gen. Studies Aud.; 7 p.m. free; movies subtitled for NTID students.

SUNDAY, JULY 11

WORSHIP SERVICES:

Protestant Service: South lounge, Gleason Hall; 9:30 a.m.; Rev. Gibson; interpreted for the deaf.

Roman Catholic Mass: Ingle Aud.; 11 a.m.; Fr. Appelby; interpreted for the deaf.

TUESDAY, JULY 13

TALISMAN: "MacKenna's Gold"; Ingle Aud.; 7:30 & 10 p.m.; free.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 14

CAMPUS RELATIONSHIPS WORKSHOP: Second session; Henry Lomb Room; 1:30 p.m.; coordinator: Harold Kentner.

SATURDAY, JULY 17

CU SHOWTIME: "Shenandoah"; Gen. Studies Aud.; 7 p.m.; free.

SUNDAY, JULY 18

WORSHIP SERVICES:

Protestant Service: South lounge, Gleason Hall; 9:30 a.m.; Rev. Gibson; interpreted.

Roman Catholic Mass: Ingle Aud.; 11 a.m.; Fr. Appelby; interpreted.

EXHIBITIONS

BEVIER GALLERY: Undergraduate honors exhibit; Monday-Friday; 8:30-12 and 1-4:30.

SATURDAY, JULY 10: Genesee Valley Kennel Club thirty-third annual dog show and obedience trials; athletic fields; 9:30-4; $1.

TUESDAY, JULY 13: Tour: teenagers, sponsored by the Urban League of Rochester; 2:30 p.m.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 14: Tour: Newfane Golden Age Club; 10:30 a.m.

NEW DEAN APPOINTED FOR APPLIED SCIENCE SCHOOL AND CCCFD

Dr. Roy I. Satre, Jr., president of the Community College of the Finger Lakes (Canandaigua) since in founding in 1967, has accepted an appointment as dean of RIT's School of Applied Science and Center for Community College Faculty Development. Dr. Satre, a noted biologist and conservationist, taught biology at Genesee State from 1950-64 and was dean of Niagara County Community College from 1964-67. He is a graduate of Carthage (Ill.) College, holds M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from Syracuse University, and is a major in the Air Force Reserves.

RIT INITIATES VETERANS ENROLLMENT CAMPAIGN

A major drive to enroll returning Vietnam servicemen and other veterans in programs for the 1971-72 academic year has been started by the Institute. President Miller said that the veterans would be given "top priority consideration" on space available basis for admissions in the fall. The recently initiated career decision program, designed for students who are not certain of their career field, is expected to play a big part in the recruitment drive, according to Dr. Miller. The RIT admissions office is handling the campaign, with cooperation and support from the public relations staff.

BAUSCH & LOMB EXECUTIVE JOINS COLLEGE OF BUSINESS FACULTY

Herbert J. Mossien, a Bausch & Lomb vice president and general manager of B&L's Scientific Instrument Division, has been named a professor of marketing on the fulltime faculty of the College of Business. Mossien is retiring after 32 years with Bausch & Lomb to take the position. He has taught evening courses at RIT for several years.

COMMITTEE NAMED TO SEEK REPLACEMENT FOR YOUNG

A six-member search committee has been named by RIT's provost, Dr. Todd Bullard, to make recommendations for a new dean of the College of Business. Assistant Professor Clifford Brown will chair the committee, which will consist of Assistant Dean Dale Gibson, Professor Francis Pallischeck, Associate Professor Raymond Bernhardt, and Mrs. Inge Pinckney (BA 3), all from the College of Business, and Dr. Derrald Livingston, director of the College of Continuing Education's Business Division. The deanship vacancy was created when Dr. Jerry D. Young resigned to take a similar position at the University of Alabama.

GASSER LIBRARY FUND ANNOUNCED AT RECEPTION

Prof. William D. Gasser, recent recipient of RIT's "Outstanding Teaching Award", was honored at a campus reception by over 400 of his friends and colleagues. At that reception, announcement was made of the establishment of the William D. Gasser Library Fund, a permanent endowment to be used to purchase books on business, with an emphasis on accounting, Gasser's field for over 30 years.

KUNTZ NAMED TO ALL-AMERICAN GOLF SQUAD

On the basis of his varsity career record and his performance in the NCAA College Division tournament, RIT's Jim Kuntz was named to the third team of the 18-man All-American golf squad. He is the first RIT golfer to be so honored. Of the 18 men named, six of each of three teams, Kuntz was the only representative of an Eastern school. He had a 35-4 career match play record and a 74.8 strokes-per-round average, and was the 1969 ECAC co-champion.

65 GOLFERS TURN OUT FOR ALUMNI OPEN; ROBERTS IS CHAMPION

Dick Roberts (PH'56) of Pittsford carded a 77 over the long Chili Country Club course to win the annual RIT Alumni Open on June 17. Roberts led the field of 65 golfers by four strokes. Russ Carter (EL'63) was second with an 81, followed by Mike Piehler (Student Personnel) with an 84. Alfred Davis (MG'41) won the low net prize, followed by Alicia Fennell (Coll. of Business) and Bill Burns (Coll. of Science).

MRS. GATES IS NEW PRESIDENT OF WOMEN'S CLUB

The new president of the RIT Women's Club is Mrs. Robert (Allane) Gates, who will complete the term of Mrs. Jerry (Joann) Young, elected prior to her husband's resignation from the Institute to take a position in Alabama. The four vice presidents are Mrs. Thomas (Rosemary) Greco, Mrs. Henry (Marianne) Ferrarone, Mrs. Joseph (Sara) Dengler, and Mrs. David (Susan) Shuster. The treasurer is Mrs. William (Kay) Gasser; the secretary, Miss Deanne Molinari; the corresponding secretary, Mrs. William (Lynne) Williams; the parliamentarian, Mrs. William (Barbara) Carey; and the nominating chairman, Mrs. Edward (Dorothy) Todd.

A farewell tea for Mrs. Young was given by the outgoing and incoming officers at the home of President and Mrs. Miller on June 23.

SEATS FILLED ON ALUMNI ASSOCIATION EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

The RIT Alumni Association has re-elected three members to its executive council and elected nine others for the first time. All terms on the council run for three years.

The election results, by college:

Business: Donald F. Paladino ('61) and Mrs. Janice Ballou Quin ('40).

Continuing Education: Robert J. Erskine ('58) and Robert G. Stocks ('66).

Engineering: Clarence E. Smith ('40) and John E. Arthur* ('50).

Fine and Applied Arts: H. Allen Gore ('49) and Jack Wolsky ('51)

Graphic Arts and Photography: Joseph Jiloty ('49) and Mark Guldin* ('49)

Science: Norman J. Gruschow ('60) and M. Diane Monte Verde* ('64).

*re-elected

NTID WELCOMES NEW CLASS FOR SUMMER PROGRAM

The eight-week Vestibule Evaluative Program began on June 27 for 86 new NTID students. The program, under the direction of William Darnell, director of student planning and evaluation, and Alan Price, the new coordinator of student planning for NTID, is designed to help the deaf student define his career goals as an introduction to their formal postsecondary education. The first four weeks of the program will give the students a general sampling of available RIT and NTID programs. During the second four weeks, they will concentrate on a specific area. There will also be emphasis placed on social consciousness and responsibility, which will ease the transition from high school to college.

NEXT NEWS & EVENT DEADLINE: MONDAY, JULY 12, NOON. ISSUE COVERS JULY 19-AUGUST 1.

POT-POURRI

Dr. Leo Smith, executive assistant to President Miller, has been elected president of the University of Rochester chapter of Phi Beta Kappa.....Dr. Smith has also been elected to another three-year term on the board of the Better Business Bureau of Rochester.....Athletic director Louis Alexander has been named to the ECAC Constitutional Committee, which is meeting this week in the Poconos.....Associate Professor Walter Horne of the Printing faculty has received the 1971 G.M. DuBois Award for Faculty Development.....The 1971 Scholastic Achievement Award, given by the same Rochester printing company, has been won by third-year student John Cleary..... Soccer coach Jim Dickie has been sanctioned as an official for the North American Soccer League.....Dr. Robert Frisina, Dr. Robert Gates, and Dr. James Speegle all represented NTID at the Convention of the American Instructors of the Deaf last week in Little Rock, Ark.....The Strassenburgh Planetarium will repeat its special captioned show "Blue Planet" for NTID students on July 13.....NEW FACES: Deborah Konopko (mail room); Pamela King (PR--publications); Alan Price and Marie Vincent (NTID); Cecilia Farnsworth (CCE); Christine Koch (Physics); Anne Slaight (Coll. of Business); Robert Wisner, Francis Leavy, Gonzalo Perez, Maria Terheyden, and Rosa Peterson (Physical Plant)....David Page has been named supervisor of the outgoing mailroom.

EXTENDED SERVICES

JULY 7-15: Seminars in Human Relations; Room 516, Metropolitan Center; 7 p.m.; topics: Current Research in Ethnic Relations (July 7); Industry's Role in Human Relations (July 8); Teaching Black Studies (July 12); Materials in Black Studies (July 14); Role of the Educator in Human Relations (July 15); coordinator: Roger Powell.

"Name the Complex" CONTEST

In an effort to "humanize" campus buildings, the RIT Business Office is announcing a contest to name the current and future married student housing facilities. The contest, open to all faculty, staff, and students, will offer entrants the opportunity of winning two $25 savings bonds for submitting suitable names for each complex.

A committee, composed of Business Office and Public Relations staff members, will select the winning entries. All entries must be submitted on the below coupon and returned to C. Douglas Burns in the Business Office by 4:30 p.m. on July 15. Winners will be notified by phone no later than July 22.

The current married student housing complex is located on Perkins Road; a new facility, composed of 275 modular units of apartments and townhouses, is being constructed on a site southwest of the academic area.

clip coupon and return

I submit the following suggestions as names for the two housing complexes:

Perkins Rd. Complex.....

Stirling-Homex Modular Complex.....

Submitted by _____ Mail to: C. Douglas Burns, Bus. Office Phone number _____