

NTID Recognizes Shirley Foley for Staff Efforts

Shirley Foley of 1066 Whalen Rd., Penfield, has been recognized for her outstanding work at the National Technical Institute for the Deaf at Rochester Institute of Technology. She is among four staff members of NITD to receive the 1982 Outstanding Service Award from the National Advisory Group at NTID.

The annual award recognizes staff members who have made consistent and exceptional contributions to the goals of NITD and to the quality of life among students and colleagues.

Shirley Foley, secretary to the director of Career Opportunities, is the most senior member of the general staff at NTID. She has been a vital part of the growth of the institute since it moved to the Jefferson Road campus in 1968.

FOUR MEMBERS of the staff of the National Technical Institute for the Deaf (NTID) at Rochester Institute of Technology (RIT) have received the 1982 Outstanding Service Award from the National Advisory Group (NAG) at NTID. The awards were presented by Dr. S. Richard Silverman (center), outgoing chairman of the NAG, at a ceremony in the NTID theatre. With him are (from left) award winners Michael McMahon, Dr. Paul Peterson, Shirley Foley, and Richard Elliott.
