

PTC and CMT Alumni News

Bruce A. Austin baagll@rit.edu

15 September 2004

More than a half dozen Professional & Technical Communication graduates have alerted us to their post-graduation activities. Julie Bourne is presently working for Discovery Logic, a vendor for the National Institutes for Health in Washington, D.C.; she is applying for graduate work at George Washington University. Jennifer Czebotar is a software trainer at Actual-Systems, Boulder, CO. David Feurhner (also an RIT MBA) conducts market research at Drucker Worldwide (Detroit, MI) for the automotive and construction industries.

Residing in the Glens Falls, NY area, Shira Katsir is a publicist for the Adirondack Ice Hawks. Colleen McCarthy is Communications Director for the Monroe County (NY) Democratic Headquarters. Kevin Ptak is enrolled in Syracuse University's Newhouse graduate program. Jessica Sanchez-Garcia works at Rural Opportunities, Inc. and is attending SUNY Brockport for a Master's in Public Administration. And Kavya Yadav is attending the University of Southern California's (Los Angeles) Annenberg School of Communications graduate program in communication management.

Communication & Media Technologies graduate Rashad Bayramov works in the Communications and External Affairs Department for British Petroleum in Baku. Dave Bradstreet (PTC and presently a CMT student) has been promoted from his RIT ResidenceNet position to ITS HelpDesk Team Leader.