RIT's Division of Student Affairs has numerous Graduate Assistantships available for the 2005-2006 academic year. Department of Communication graduates and CMT graduate students are invited to apply for these positions.

There are more than 25 graduate assistantships (GA) available in the Division of Student Affairs. GAs serve students in various capacities from conflict resolution in the apartments to working with community service initiatives and working with student organizations. Compensation varies by position. All positions provide valuable professional experience for the GA and affords a better experience for all of our students at RIT.

Applications will be accepted for these positions until they are filled.
