PTC Alum is Editor of RIT Book

Bruce A. Austin  baagll@rit.edu

11 October 2004

Kevin Ptak, 2004 Professional & Technical Communication graduate, is the editor of 175: A Celebration of Art & Literary Works at Rochester Institute of Technology.

Ptak, presently a graduate student at Syracuse University’s S.I. Newhouse School of Communication, served as Editor for this chapbook while completing his PTC degree. The book was published on 8 October 2004 as one part of the 175th RIT celebration. Copies of the book are available at the Department of Communication’s offices, Eastman room 3006.