

DOC Alumni News

Bruce A. Austin baagll@rit.edu

10 March 2005

We've heard from quite a number of Department of Communication graduates. And we're eager to receive notes from DOC alumni. Below we present information on this distinguished group of former students who are now professionals of whom we're very proud.

Wanda Carter, PTC, is Assistant Director of Admissions at The Art Institute of Atlanta (GA). Bobby Cox, PTC, is a graphic design specialist at the Corporate Executive Board in Washington, D.C. Andrea Ervay, PTC '04, is the Director of Human Services for The Marketing Firm in Baltimore, MD. Monica Haley, PTC, completed her Masters in Library and Information Sciences at the University of Rhode Island and is now working as office manager and clinical trials and research coordinator at the Virginia Retina Center, Leesburg, VA.

Also, Bryan Howell, PTC '99, is a writer for XBOX sports and racing games for Microsoft Corp. (Redmond, WA). Andrew Kieniksmann, PTC '91, is a regulatory specialist for Pace International in Seattle, WA. Carin Kosmoski, CMT '04, has been accepted to the Ph.D. program in Health Communication at Purdue University. Katrese Lockett, PTC, is an Examiner at the Monroe County (NY) Department of Health Services.

And, Tara Martin, PTC '04, is assistant to the CEO at a promotional marketing firm, The Garr Group, in New Jersey. Diana McKee, PTC '04, recently accepted a position with Strong Hospital. Richard Mislán, PTC '91, is a graduate program professor in the College of Business at Ferris State University, Big Rapids, MI. Aimee Whyte Solomon, PTC '01, is a domestic violence program coordinator for Communication Services for the Deaf, St. Paul, MN.