

Fall Internship Opportunity

Bruce A. Austin baagll@rit.edu

17 August 2004

There is an internship opportunity available at VertaSource, LLC, creators of www.Rochesterathome.com. VertaSource seeks Communication students to assist in covering local events and writing Rochesterathome.com content related to the events. What content this includes is flexible based on student interest. Specific areas they are looking to have covered include local upcoming events (sporting, arts, theater, festivals, etc.), restaurant reviews, and hot spots like a review of a great local area to visit, bar, nightclub, etc.

This is an unpaid internship. The length of the internship is contingent on RIT Co-op requirements. For more information call Wendy Kruse at 716-853-1440 or email her at wendykruse@hotmail.com .
