

Marketing Communication Job Available

Bruce A. Austin baagll@rit.edu

1 February 2002

A full time, professional position as regional coordinator for marketing communication is available at Planned Parenthood, Rochester, NY. The successful applicant will assist with the development and execution of communication strategies and programs. S/he will have primary responsibility for media relations and marketing communication projects (direct mail, advertising, newsletter, annual reports) and will provide technical assistance on printed program materials.

For additional information including contact information for the position -- please see Cathy Smith at the Department office.

Please note this is not a Co-op position.