

PTC's Monica Haley Wins Coveted Award

Bruce A. Austin baagll@rit.edu

7 May 2003

Congratulations to Monica Haley, a PTC graduating senior, who is the winner of the prestigious H. Preston Herring Award from Residence Life. Selected from a pool of 110 Resident Assistants, Monica won the award for outstanding job performance. The award is named for a former director of Residence Life.

This summer, following graduation, Monica will be employed by the Johns Hopkins Center for Talented Youth. In the fall, she begins graduate school at the University of Rhode Island (Kingston, RI) studying for a Master's degree in Information and Library Science and certification to teach secondary education.