Kevin Ptak, a 2004 Professional & Technical Communication graduate, and Jessica Wigent, a 2004 Communication & Media Technologies graduate, each contributed in important ways to the new issue of Beyond the Classroom (BTC).

Kevin was Editor for this issue (and for the previous three issues) and wrote an article focusing on the Macro Social Work class and its involvement with Rochester's NorthEast Neighborhood Alliance (NENA).

Jessica wrote an article on RIT Design professor Nancy Chwiecko and two of her design students' work with NENA.
