

Writers Wanted for Quarterly Newsletter

Bruce A. Austin baagll@rit.edu

17 March 2004

PTC and CMT students interested in building their writing portfolios are urged to contact Kevin Ptak (fourth year PTC), Editor of Beyond the Classroom.

Beyond the Classroom magazine, a quarterly on-campus publication, seeks two writers for the spring issue. A stipend is offered on a per assignment basis. If you are interested in being published, would like your news articles read by the mayor of Rochester (and other important people) and want to add a dynamic, published writing sample to your portfolio, we can make those things happen.

Interested writers should send an email and brief writing sample to Kevin Ptak at kpp4492@rit.edu. First and second year students are especially encouraged to apply.