

Presentation of Senior Theses in Communication

Bruce A. Austin baagl@rit.edu

19 February 2007

The Department of Communication invites readers to the Winter Quarter senior communication majors' presentations of their Senior Theses in Communication on Friday, 23 February beginning at 8 a.m. in 01-3379.

Aaron-Taylor Austin will present "Visual Messages in the Annual Reports for Wal-Mart: A Comparison of Visual Messages in the 1996 and 2006 Annual Reports."

Corinne Griffiths will present "A Tendency to Incite: Applying Kenneth Burke's Pentad to Cohen v. California."

Steve Ong will present "Creating a License to Defame: A Pentadic Analysis of Online Libel Cases."

Clayton A. Pacelli will present "Rocking Progressively: How 2112 Contributed to the Popular Culture of 1976."

Jennifer Palumbo will present "One PSAs Loss is Another's Gain: A Content Analysis of Public Service Announcements in Men's and Women's Magazines."

Copies of each researcher's study Abstract are available on request; please write to Chris VanHemel, cmvgpt@rit.edu.