Liberal Smarts, the bi-annual College of Liberal Arts newsletter written and designed solely by Liberal Arts students, is now on the Web www.rit.edu/liberalsmarts. Liberal Smarts provides news about the college, its students and their activities and seeks to inform students, faculty, alumni and the families of currently enrolled students.

The newsletter's website design was envisioned by current Editor Kayla Zerby and was created by her brother, Jack Zerby, a fourth-year New Media Design student. Kayla thanks Jack for his hard work and dedication to making Liberal Smarts an even better publication.

Liberal Smarts is the most widely distributed newsletter of any college at RIT. This Spring issue will be published on 10 May 2003; in the meantime, check out the website.
