

Signatures Magazine Holds Meeting, Seeks Contributions

Bruce A. Austin baagll@rit.edu

23 October 2002

A second informational meeting for students interested in joining the Signatures magazine staff will be held this Thursday, 24 October, from 5-6:30 in the Liberal Arts Faculty Commons (06-1251).

This is a good time to get on board the magazine staff and/or its CD-ROM and Web design teams, as most of the returning editors are Seniors.

In addition, Signatures is now accepting contributions. The editors will consider poems, films, stories, photos, art, computer art, animes, performance, etc. created by RIT students. You can submit online via their Website: www.rit.edu/signatures