

Lambda Pi Eta Induction Ceremony Celebrates Communication Student Academic Achievements

Bruce A. Austin baagll@rit.edu

1 October 2004

Ten students undergraduate and graduate communication majors will be inducted into Lambda Pi Eta, the prestigious Honor Society for the National Communication Association on Friday, 8 October. The event, hosted by Honor Society Advisor Dr. Susan Barnes, will be held in the SAU Skalny Room beginning at 6:30 p.m.

The Professional & Technical Communication students being inducted to the Xi Upsilon Chapter of Lambda Pi Eta are Brandon Borgna, Nicole Robinson, Robert Tobin (TOBY) Foor-Pessin, Shaun Jamieson, Andrew Krull, Diana McKee, Mary Bouwens, and Bradley Elsmore. Two Communication & Media Technologies students will be inducted: Elizabeth Reeves and Kristi Davis Ziehl.

Dr. Rudy Pugliese, Coordinator for the Department's graduate degree program in Communication & Media Technologies, is the evening's featured speaker.

You are invited to attend the ceremony, congratulate the inductees and enjoy the reception that follows.