9 September 2002

The Institute Appeals Board seeks undergraduates to participate as Student Justices. Student Justices serve on the Institute Appeals Board, reviewing appealed cases of RIT policies. This may be a good opportunity to apply your knowledge of evidence and argumentation.

To be a Student Justice you:

1. Must be at least a Sophomore
2. Must have good academic standing
3. Must be in good judicial standing

To apply, go to the Office of Student Affairs, located in the Student Alumni Union, room 2410 or call 475-5664 for an application.

The deadline for applications is 27 September 2002.
