

Summer Co-op at MTV for DOC Students

Bruce A. Austin baagll@rit.edu

15 March 2006

Courtesy of PTC alumnus Malik Simmonds, Department of Communication students are invited to check out the mtvU Digital Media Fellowships. Malik, a DOC graduate, is the Manager of Human Services at MTV.

mtvU fellows will be coming up with music/programming content for the network's online music group, researching digital media trends, participating in application software development projects for high-traffic media websites, working with MTV's online games group, and gaining experience in the areas of web design, production, marketing, and strategy/research.
