Current Jobs in Communication, a monthly publication listing jobs in writing, editing and related communication professions, is now available in the Department of Communication office. Positions are organized geographically. Some may be appropriate for Co-ops, but most are full-time professional positions.

We've subscribed on a trial basis to this publication. So, we need your feedback. Please take a moment to review the current issue. We're happy to begin a full subscription, but will do so only when students tell us they find the publication useful and want to have it.

Write Bruce Austin to offer your comments.
