Soleo Communications, a Fairport, NY systems integration company, anticipates Co-op opportunities for Professional & Technical Communication and Advertising & Public Relations majors. The Co-op will include such responsibilities as writing documents, creating procedures and policies for engineers, and preparing administrative guides.

Soleo is also interested in hiring a Marketing Writer for a full-time position. For more information, contact the Department's Co-op Program Coordinator, Maria Richart (mjroce@rit.edu).
