

RIT Housing

Presentation for Academic Advisors
February 13, 2007

Current Students and Housing for 2007-2008

○ Renewal Process – Completed

- For students who currently live in apartments and the RIT Inn
- Students renew their current apartment/room for the following year

○ Phase II – February 5 -18

- For students in the residence halls, on co-op, and students who did not renew
- Registration on line at <http://housing.rit.edu>

Current Students and Housing for 2007-2008

- All current students need to participate in one of these Housing Selection processes - even special groups like honors, Greeks, Special Interest House members, and students with special needs
- Every student who participates gets housing
- Not getting preference equates to being offered no housing to some students
- Some students will be assigned initially to temporary housing through Phase II process
 - Will be assigned to permanent housing prior to move in

Incoming Students and Housing for 2007-2008

- Currently receiving contracts from freshmen, transfers, and graduates for 2007-2008 academic year
- Assignments are made June & July
- Assignments on line for students to get August 1
- Transfers and grads are not guaranteed housing – assigned on a space available basis
- The majority of transfer and grads begin the fall quarter in temporary housing and then assigned to permanent housing fall quarter

Housing Operations

- Contact me at csd1223@rit.edu or x52878
- If you would like a tour of housing or more in-depth information, I would be very happy to arrange it.