Congratulations to Brenna J. Cammeron, Carly Gioia, and John-Michael Stern, all Department of Communication students, and all Professional & Technical Communication majors, who were recognized at this year's Outstanding Undergraduate Scholar Ceremony on Thursday, April 5th.

The ceremony honored the 85 RIT students named as Scholars. Students earning this prestigious, competitive award have completed 125-quarter credit hours of course work and maintained a minimum GPA of 3.85.

An e-newsletter published occasionally by the Department of Communication and distributed to students and their family, alumni, faculty and others who have expressed an interest in communication.
