

DOC's Maris Grundy Earns Clark Scholarship

Bruce A. Austin baagl@rit.edu

7 May 2007

Maris Grundy, a fourth-year Advertising & Public Relations major in the Department of Communication has been awarded a Clark Scholarship. The competitively earned scholarship supports students pursuing modestly paying Co-ops and Internships. Maris will be working in New York City this summer at *interrupcion, an organization working to create a global public by introducing ideas of responsible consumption practices.