Corinne Griffiths (PTC '07) updates the eNewsletter from earlier this week to say she's accepted a new professional position. Corinne is now Circulation Supervisor at Bowdoin College in Brunswick, ME.

Becca Nelson (PTC '07) reports she is enrolled in the MS degree program in IT/Business/Communications through RIT's multidisciplinary studies. Additionally, she continues working fulltime as marketing coordinator at VanDamme Associates, a Pittsford, NY software company. In December (through March 2008) she will travel to Nairobi, where she will do web design and computer training for grassroots ministries who are trying to sell African products online.

An e-newsletter published occasionally by the Department of Communication and distributed to students and their family, alumni, faculty and others who have expressed an interest in communication.
