A number of Department of Communication alumni have recently sent us news about themselves and their careers. Chelsea Killam (PTC '07) is in the Washington, D.C. area where she works in the strategic research department for a not-for-profit organization, ASAE and the Center for Association Leadership.

Kevin Barker (PTC '06) is a disaster assistance expert with FEMA and works out of the Albany, NY office. Aisha Holmes (PTC '96) began her graduate degree program in technical communication at North Carolina State University just a few days ago. Matt Staub (PTC '97) is a technical support engineer for Session Border Controller products at Acme Packet in Waltham, MA.

Corinne Griffiths (PTC '07) is a publicist with Matter Communications, Newburyport, MA. Jonathan Bove (PTC '05) is national assistant director for residence life with Campus Advantage and is based in Denver, CO. Aaron Baskin (PTC '03) is a departmental trainer for PAETEC Communications in Rochester, NY.

Jessica Drake (APR, '06; CMT, '07) recently accepted a position at Paychex in Rochester, NY. Andrew Quagliata (PTC '01 and RIT MBA '03) is a financial adviser and operations manager at New Horizon Advisors in Pittsford, NY. Julia Dickinson (CMT '06) has been promoted to research director at Rochester Business Journal. Michelle Wescott (CMT, '07) is an instructional designer with Element K in Rochester, NY. And Jennifer Palumbo (PTC '07) has had her articles published in Managed Care Report, an Eli Research publication.
