13 September 2007

Professional & Technical Communication majors and Advertising & Public Relations majors are invited to attend the Creative Speedate on Thursday, 20 September from 7:30 to 9 p.m. at Walter Colley Images Studio

176 Anderson Ave., Rochester, NY 14607 (near Village Gate)

This FREE networking event pairs creative professionals with students for five minutes of conversation. No resumes, no portfolios and no formal wear... just talk. The event follows a speed-dating theme where students are partnered with professionals for five minutes, and then rotate to another professional for another five minutes, and so on.

Sponsored in part by the Rochester Advertising Federation (RAF), RAF's goal is building connections within the industry and community.
