SWEETHEARTS ALL- The newly initiated sisters of Alpha Sigma Alpha listen attentively to a serenade in their honor presented by the brothers of Sigma Pi. The serenade culminated a weekend of festive activities.

DO Becomes National; Now Alpha Sigma Alpha

Delta Omicron sorority has been formally inducted into Alpha Sigma Alpha national sorority as Gamma Iota Chapter. The 31 sisters initiated underwent six weeks of informal pledging before becoming charter members of the Rochester chapter.

The induction weekend started Friday night with the pledge examination and continued with a get-acquainted party with national officers, alumnae, and guests.

Chairman Judy Rodgers, assisted by the sisters in Foods, was responsible for the preparation of all refreshments.

On Saturday morning the sisters were initiated into the national and then attended a luncheon, directed by Barbara Goodman, in the Pioneer Room of Nathaniel Rochester Hall. That afternoon the chapter was inducted into the national. At the induction, the national chapter presented Gamma Iota with an engraved gavel and Alpha Xi Delta gave a silver bowl in commemoration of the installation.

Barbara Popp arranged for a formal banquet Saturday evening at Lorenzo's, where the charter was presented by Miss Evelyn G. Bell, former national president. The sorority's motto, Aspire - Seek - Attain, was toasted by Gamma Iota and other chapters in the area.

Many of the sisters and guests attended a party at Sigma Pi house following the banquet.

Sunday afternoon started with a conference of all Alpha Sigma Alpha chapter officers present and was followed by a tea at the home of Mrs. Stanley Widger, sponsored by Rochester alumnae

15 Students Honored; Named to 'Who's Who'

Fifteen RIT students have been honored by being named to appear in Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. They were selected on the basis of their outstanding scholarship along with their contribution of leadership and service to the student body.

Who's Who is an organization formed to give formal recognition to the country's leading college students. Their names will appear in the annual publication which will be printed this summer.

The appointees are: Ron Sherman, (Photo 4), who is presently serving as Student Council President. He has also held the presidency of the Religious Activities Association and Tau Epsilon Phi fraternity. Ron was last year's Spring Weekend Chairman.

Angelica Pilato (FA 4) is a past president of both Delta Omicron sorority and Intersorority Council. She has been vice president of the Newman Club and is this year's chairman of Spring Weekend.

Denis Kitchen (Pr 3) is the newly elected vice president of Student Council and has served the council faithfully on many committees. Denis is a member of Tau Kappa Alpha, honorary fraternity, and Phi Sigma Kappa, social fraternity.

Aquatic Capers Highlight Picnic On Saturday

On Saturday, Student Council and the administration will hold the "New Campus Day" picnic.

This year the event is called "To the New Frontier" and will have a western theme. A full day of activities has been planned.

A caravan of cars will form at noon along Washington St., next to the Student Union. There will be a bus for students who do not have rides.

The caravan will proceed to Genesee Valley Park for the start of the inter-organizational canoe race, which will end at the new campus. The canoe race is the follow-up to the highly successful marathon dance of last year, won by Theta Xi.

At the new campus there will be a work party, volleyball, softball, a sawing contest, a spike driving contest, and other activities, as well as the usual bonfire.

Student Council has arranged for square dancing and possibly a horse show. The administration will supply food and drink.

Atomic Weapons Subject of Faculty Lecture Series

by Jon Harden

Two distinct differences of opinion were expressed by Professors Robin Brooks and Earle Hughes concerning the existence and justification of an "overkill" situation in the nuclear arms race.

They conducted their discussion in a session of the Faculty Lecture Series which was held May 13 at the Student Activities Center.

Prof. Brooks, of the College of General Studies, began the discussion by giving the adverse effects of "overkill" on the military, political, and economic aspects of our society. He said, "The United States and Russia have between themselves 600 million tons of TNT in nuclear arms. This is 20 tons per person. We have hundreds of times more weapons than we would ever possibly need to completely destroy the enemy. A nuclear war would be a war of extermination. It cannot be won even though mankind may still survive. We have a great surplus of nuclear weapons which has brought the cold war into a stalemate which has gone beyond the point of return."

"Tensions produced as a result of the cold war," he continued, "are not conducive to the development of civilization. Before we can grapple effectively with the great problems facing the society of the world the tensions of the cold war must be resolved. We cannot come to grips with economic problems as long as the threat of

Reporter Announces New Editorial Staff

With interviews and evaluations almost completed, the Reporter appears to have the makings of an outstanding staff next year, according to Anthony Puskarz, editor-in-chief. With more appointments to be announced, the editorial board has been selected.

Puskarz will remain as editor-in-chief through January, assuming full command of the paper upon the graduation of Gary Ludwick, co-editor-in-chief.

Second in command will be Nick Cerchio (Pr 3) as Managing Editor. Cerchio has served on the Reporter staff for three years, his latest position being Sports Editor. He has been manager of the freshman basketball and baseball teams, and was manager for the varsity basketball team last year. He is a member of Theta Xi fraternity and will serve as their Public Relations head next year.

Associate editor will be Earle Wootton (Pr 2) who has been on the Reporter staff two years, serving as News Editor this past year. He consistently places on the Dean's List and is now serving as secretary of Sigma Pi fraternity.

Continuing as Public Relations Director is Charles Swan (Pr 3). He will have additional help this year from Peter Bird (Pr 2) who has been named assistant director.

Promoted to Sports Editor is Chris Hoagland (Pr 2) who served on the sports staff this year and as a news reporter his freshman year.

Coming from the ranks of the staff reporters is Dave Gregory, who has been named Feature Editor. Gregory is a first year photographer and a member of Theta Xi fraternity.

Succeeding Wayne Dingerson as Advertising Manager is Wayne Jackson (Pr 2). He is a Canadian and this is his first time on the staff.

A new post has been created on the Reporter staff. Steve Eisenberg (Photo 3) as Graphic Arts Director will serve as a coordinator for the Photo and Art Departments. Eisenberg has been with the Reporter for three years and served as Photo Editor this year.

Distribution will be placed in the hands of a new member of the staff, Ralph Koch (Pr 1), circulation manager.

Further announcements of staff selections will be made next week when the final evaluations are completed.

National Science Foundation Grants Institute $43,530

The National Science Foundation, a branch of the federal government, has awarded two financial grants to the College of Science. In order to receive the grant, an equal amount must be furnished by the Institute.

The Chemistry Dept., will receive a $9,930 grant. The money will be used for scientific equipment, teaching models, and periodicals for the library.

The Computer Center will receive the second grant of $33,600. The money, together with an equal amount given by the school, will go toward the purchasing of equipment which has previously been rented.

HAY RIDE- Last Tuesday the New Campus was host to a swarm of fund raising campaign workers. On the agenda was this trip around the grounds by a wagon load of participants.

EDITORIALS EDITORIALS EDITORIALS

Objectivity vs Organizational Appeasement

Every so often throughout the school year, the Reporter becomes the critical target of a few individuals and organizations on campus who are dissatisfied with us because of a so called lack of adequate news coverage—particularly where their organization is concerned.

Our primary function is to assemble and then present in print the events, feature angles and explanatory background of the Institute community. Because of the abundance of news media in Rochester and our own lack of space, we feel no obligation to carry local or national news.

Since we are restricted to a weekly eight page paper we will never be able to completely publicize all the campus news. And because we are not a completely student newspaper, we also carry obligations to those who do make this venture financially and physically possible; the faculty and administration, the alumni, etc.

Thus, the job of the various editors each week remains to evaluate the importance of the stories, letters, pictures, and the news responsibilities outside the student body in relation to their timeliness and overall value to the entire campus. Naturally the decisions made are never going to satisfy all surrounding factions, but the desire to appease various campus groups cannot override our goal of objectivity and total responsibility. That we fall short on thorough campus coverage is evident to no one more than it is to our own staff.

We only hope that a clarification of our position will bring the realization that when a newspaper submits to those who wish to use it only as a publicity outlet, its existence as an objective news media can no longer be justified.

Spotlight is on us . . .

A few short months ago, it was requested of the Institute, in response to the series of personal attacks on RIT students, to take immediate steps to provide protection and insure their safety.

Concrete evidence of the Institute's concern for the welfare of the student has been on display since last week. The campus at night has been revealed in all its splendor under the watchful eyes of the new 1500 watt quartz lamps already placed on some of the buildings.

The student body is indeed appreciative of the fact that some overt demonstration of the Institute's concern has been finally realized.

However, it has also been noticed that the system's timing mechanism has not been set to conform with the time regulations of Institute housing. The lights have shut off too early in the evening and thus any benefit which might be gained is lost. The lights should be timed to shut off with the curfews at the women's housing units, or somewhat later. This situation should be corrected soon for procrastination might prove fatal. Good fortune has seen fit to cast its motherly eye on RIT this year, let's not push our luck.

Dear Editor:

I am taking this time to remind ourselves of some of the general problems concerned with apartment living, as well as with the more specific problems of living in the downtown area of a city. In any city, there is more opportunity for burglarizing, attacks, and similar incidents of a problem nature. Because of this, it is necessary first, to employ all the precautionary measures available, and second, to be prepared to act properly in the event of any incident.

First, in order to prevent possible burglary, it is advisable to keep all doors locked and all windows closed when not in an apartment. It is especially wise to remember, as the weather becomes warmer, that it is sometimes better to return to a stuffy and secure apartment rather to one that has been burglarized. All of us are in possession of too many valuable clothes, equipment, etc., to run the risk of losing some or all of these when it could have been avoided.

Second, we should all review what action to take if we have been burglarized or attacked. Generally speaking, it is usually better if you do not try to handle the situation by yourself. In case of burglary, you should contact the police and representatives of the Institute as soon as possible, regardless of time or day. In case of an attack, you should be able to judge whether you can escape, or whether you must protect yourself. In either case, the incident should be reported immediately to the police, and then to Institute officials. We are all advised to avoid trouble if at all possible, to avoid any potentially troublesome area, and to travel with companions. We should also remind ourselves that it is against the law to keep concealed weapons; and, therefore, this method of self-protection must be avoided.

The Institute is indeed concerned with the welfare and safety of all of its students, and it is both investigating and following through on a number of possibilities in order to fulfill this end. The Pinkerton staff has been enlarged, and lighting in the campus area has been or is being greatly improved. In addition, and of extreme importance to all students, we have made arrangements for one central communications area, to be contacted in case of an emergency. Any call to this number will alert Security and other Institute officials for immediate action. This central communications area is to be located at Kate Gleason Hall; the number to call, only in case of extreme emergency, is LO 2-8195.

A young man looks at life and the world is there. A young man's look at life is one of challenge. A young man's challenge finds the unquenchable desire, the intrinsic vitality to give of himself, to let the world know of him. Where does he belong in life's passion of love and hate, joy and sorrow, war and peace.

He must find his place beside his fellow men to live and learn, to seek success, to find failure, to sustain the courage to try again.

For life is a slap in the face, a helping hand, a kiss, a smile, a belief, a disappointment, a hope, an open heart.

Yet, all is life, inseparable and unique in that the sweet does not come without the death, each intensifying the other, each to the other is life.

A young man's life finds his way in faith, that life's journey is an end to nothing but a beginning to everything, that someone much greater than he gave purpose to his life.

Yes, a young man's look at life finds a challenge, a purpose and search for those who care. For life is other people. It is people who make you want to cry, people who make you want to die. Yet, it is people who make you want to laugh and love and live. Yes, it is people who make life what it is, day to day, month to month, year to year.

And so, as a young man looks at life, he finds his life in others, and others find their life in him.

Thanks to all who have been so sustaining in their encouragement for this column.

I leave you with a thought to make all your crossroads little-bitty ones. In the words of Elbert Hubbard: One can bear grief, but it takes two to be glad. We reach the divine through some one, and by dividing our joy with this one we double it, and come in touch with the Universal. The sky is never so blue, the birds never sing so blithely, our acquaintances are never so gracious, as when we are filled with love for some one else.

House of Wax

The New Christy Minstrels present a number of songs from MGM's comedy about the Civil War, "Advance to the Rear." The album is called "Today" and runs the pace of wildfire. (Columbia CS 8959) That is, for the first song. After that, songs lose out to marches and gimmick tunes. No matter, things are presented lightly and the album should be taken in that spirit.

Barbara Streisand's new musical, "Funny Girl" is this season's most exciting Broadway adventure. (Capitol VAS 2059) Music and lyrics by Jule Styne and Bob Merrill form the vehicle for Miss Streisand's vigorous voice, electric personality and enthusiasm. The vim of "If a Girl Isn't Pretty" and elan of "People" will make this album one of 1964's greatest recorded sensations. Highly recommended without reservation.

Paul Hindemith's death, 'Dec. 28, 1963, ended one of this century's prime musical forces. Two of his best compositions are given unequalled readings by Ormandy and the Philadelphia Orchestra: The Symphony "Mathus der Maler" and the 1943 "Symphonic Metamorphosis." (Columbia MS 6562) The clarity and depth of Columbia's stereo is awesome in its emphasis of Hindemith's detailed orchestration and splendor. Hindemith's conducting of his own "When Lilacs Last in the Dooryard Bloom'd" (A Requiem for those we Love," Columbia MS 6573) will destine this album as a final tribute to a versatile musician. However, I feel the music here neither lives up to, or adds to Whitman's elegy. The hour of near-perfect stereo on this disc is unheard of for modern recordings.

In reference to tributes: The last and most moving tribute to the late President was recorded Jan. 19 at the Holy Cross Church, Boston. A Solemn Pontifical Requiem Mass, celebrated by Richard Cardinal Cushing, features the Mozart Requiem in combination with the traditional liturgy. The luster of this document (RCA Victor, LSC 1030) with Erich Leinsdorf, the Boston Symphony, chorus, quartet and Oregonian Chant by students of St. John's Seminary, shall be perpetual.

REFLECTION

If, when I am about to step
O'er the threshold of Death,
I can recall,
And with my last earthly breath
Say,
"I have done some good,

Then gladly shall I go
And see what Death may bring.

The prominent Ars Antiqua by Dan O'Toole (Photo 3) is now on exhibit in the front lobby. This display has been at Midtown, the Rundel Library, and Memorial Art Gallery.

Delta Lambda Epsilon, the honorary photo fraternity, also has a showing.

An exhibit of a senior thesis will be displayed May 17-23. It will include pictures and objects of Elbert Hubbard and the Roycroft Movement.

Hubbard was an American writer, editor, and printer, who founded Roycroft Shop at East Aurora, N. Y.

The annual Photo Salon will be on exhibit from May 24-31.

Undergraduate Students Join Peace Caravan

A rare opportunity for undergraduate students to carry their concerns about world peace and social justice to "Crossroads, U. S. A." is offered by the Peace Caravan program of the American Friends Service Committee this summer.

A "peace caravan" consists of an interracial group of four or five young men and women who visit by car a segment of the country over a six weeks period. Local committees prepare a welcome for the caravanners, and also schedule meetings with local government officials, civic, and church groups.

The caravanners have an opportunity to discuss their ideas and concerns about such things as ultimate world survival, the validity of nonviolence as a way of life, and achieving peaceful social change. They also have the chance to learn what others think and feel.

Five AFSC Peace Caravans are scheduled: Oregon; Southern California and Arizona; Ohio and Indiana; Michigan and New York. The only program expense to the caravanners is fare to Williams Bay, Wisc., on June 28, where the young people will have a week's special briefing at the Midwest Summer Institute of the AFSC. At the conclusion of the caravan they are obligated to get back home on their own.

Peace Caravans are open to young persons with a minimum of one year college or an acceptable equivalent. Inasmuch as the openings are limited by the schedule and transportation accommodations, speed in registering is imperative for those interested in joining this unusual opportunity for grassroots travel and back country dialogue.

Dorm Radio Has New Manager

Gilbert Herlet (Elec 2) was recently elected the new General Manager of WRIT replacing Harold Abraham (Photo 2). He indicated that policies concerning the operation of the station will remain much the same as those laid down by the former general manager.

He is at the present time conferring with the new Dorm Council president, Edward Balsley, in an attempt to arrange a weekly talk by the latter to give the highlights of Dorm Council meetings.

Herlet is continuing the work of Abraham relative to joining the Intercollegiate Broadcasting System. He feels that this would greatly improve the operation of WRIT.

The new general manager will also continue the editorial policy of the station as well as continue his Thursday evening radio show. His views on a possible merger with WTR are indefinite at this time. He does believe, however, that plans should be made in the near future to assure a single college radio station at the new campus.

Students planning to leave school permanently in June, who have been employed in any capacity by RIT and who have received pay checks, should leave a forwarding address with Mrs. Brunner in the Payroll Dept., in Room 121, Eastman Bldg.

Film Previews To Show Film By Dr. Conant

Dr. James B. Conant speaks about the essential problems of American education in a filmed interview to be presented in the Thursday, May 28 showing of "Educational Film Previews." The film, entitled James B. Conant, was produced by the National Broadcasting Co.

Whaler Out of New Bedford, the second film to be shown, is a series of photographs made from an 1800 foot panorama painted in 1848. Authentic songs of the period, sung and played by Peggy Seiger and Ewan MacCall, are combined with the photographs in portraying a whaling voyage around the world.

ECSA Holds Dance

The brand-new Evening College Student Association held its first social event last Friday evening when some 350 students and faculty danced to Ken Renick's music in Ritter-Clark gym.

Anthony Palermo, John Masco, and Richard Brown of the ECSA executive group headed the arrangements committee.

Dean of Business Moderates Panel

Miss Edwina B. Hogadone, dean of the College of Business at RIT, was moderator for a panel discussing bargain buying at the Money-In-Your-Pocket Clinic at St. Lawrence University on Tuesday, May 12.

The clinic was sponsored by the women's groups of St. Lawrence County as a part of the State Department Woman's Program.

Miss Hogadone is a member of the New York State Women's Council appointed by Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

State Educational Dept. Announces Fellowships

Dr. James E. Allen, State Commissioner of Education, has announced that the State Education Dept., is now receiving applications for two new graduate fellowship programs.

Authorized at the recent legislative session, the new programs provide for 100 fellowships for full-time graduate study in the humanities, social sciences, natural sciences, mathematics and engineering, and 100 fellowships for part-time graduate study in engineering and the sciences.

Both programs will enable capable students either to initiate or to continue graduate study, thus they will be of interest to graduating seniors, current graduate yet attained the doctorate. Both programs are open to residents of New York State and are for use in programs leading to the doctorate in graduate schools in the state. Selection will be based on merit as indicated by transcripts, graduate record examination or Miller Analogies Test scores, recommendations and an application form.

The fellowships for full-time study carry a stipend of from $500 to $2500 depending on financial need, for a term of one year. The part-time fellowship is a two-year award at from $250 to $1250 per year, depending on need.

The 200 new fellowships are in addition to the 350 Regents College Teaching Fellowships awarded each year. By 1965-66 as many as 900 graduate students will be studying with the help of state fellowships, at an annual cost of nearly $1,300,000.

Applications for the new fellowships may be obtained from the Regents Examination and Scholarship Center, State Education Dept., Albany. Deadline for applications is June 1, with the awards to be announced July 1.

Police, RIT To Teach Drivers

A special Thruway-Expressway Driving Clinic, conducted by the Extended Services Division at RIT, will be held in the Small Hall of the Rochester Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday evening, May 26, from 7:30 to 9:30.

The clinic is co-sponsored by the Automobile Club of Rochester and the Rochester Safety Council of the Chamber of Commerce.

Conducting the session, which will examine techniques and offer tips for thruway and high speed driving, will be: Sgt. D.A. Burt, New York State Police; Sgt. John B. Kinnicutt, Monroe County Sheriff's Dept.; and Sgt. D.E. Leach, Traffic Section, Rochester Police Dept.

Subjects to be discussed will include: driving responsibility (legal and moral), emergency stops (services and communications), entering and leaving thruway and expressway, hitchhikers, keys to safe driving, night driving, passing, physical factors in driving, and road and weather conditions.

There will be a registration fee of $1 payable at the clinic.

ARO Seeks Alumni Information

Have you changed positions recently? If so, the Alumni Relations Office would appreciate being advised of your change in employment.

According to information supplied to the Reporter, the Alumni Relations Office is attempting to keep a current file on alumni employment. The information is part of the master confidential record card which the office maintains on each member of the Alumni Association.

The Alumni Relations staff pointed out that they receive many inquiries regarding location and business affiliation of alumni from their fellow classmates. Also the Institute uses the material for educational studies to determine the types of occupations in which the graduates are employed. These studies often lead to changes in curriculum.

An example of the importance of the material, is the accreditation of the Chemistry Dept., by the American Chemical Society. One of the items which the accreditation team reviewed was the type of work and the corporate affiliations of the departmental alumni. Apparently all was satisfactory as the department received full accreditation from the professional group.

Other information in which the alumni staff is interested for their records includes: name and date of birth of children, civic and professional group affiliations, changes in marital status, changes of name, graduate study, etc.

If you have made a change in employment within the last six months or if you do so in the future, please send in the appropriate information for your record. It should be addressed to: Records Section, Alumni Relations Office, RIT, Rochester, N.Y. 14608.

Officers Named By Chess Club

The RIT Chess Club recently elected new officers for the '64-'65 school year. Wayne Gilgore was re-elected president and Steve Cooper was elected vice president.

Betsy Knoll is the new secretary-treasurer and Steve Warner is tournament director. Advisor of the Chess Club is Dr. Julian Salisnjak.

The club made a trip to Cornell University in Ithaca to compete against GrandMasters and experts in an open individual tournament on April 18-19. According to Gilgore the Chess Club did not walk away with any great honors, but he felt that they gained valuable experience by playing against the top players in this section of the country.

Team members Russell Drakes, Betsy Knoll, Steve Cooper, Wayne Gilgore, and Jon Harden made the trip for RIT.

Following the Cornell tournament, the Chess Club fought to a draw with a tough team from Bausch and Lomb. Winners for RIT were Peter Debin, Steve Cooper, and Russell Drakes.

Dr. Salisnjak came away with a draw after four hours of grueling battle.

The club meets every Tuesday evening at 7:30 in the Pink Room of the Student Activities Center. Anyone interested in playing chess will be cordially welcomed to the meetings.

Evening College Awards BS Degree

Warren L. Rhodes, head of RIT's Graphic Arts Research Dept., has recently been elected vice president of the Inter-Society Color Council for a two-year term. The announcement followed the annual Board of Directors meeting of the council.

As vice president, Rhodes automatically succeeds to the presidency in 1966.

A leader in the graphic arts field and internationally recognized, Rhodes also teaches the application of science courses in the School of Printing.

Newman Club Elects Officers

Sandee Wieloszynski was named president of the RIT Newman Club for the coming year at the annual awards banquet held May 24 at the Maplewood Inn on East Ave.

Awards were presented to the "Senior Member of the Year" and to the "Member of the Year."

Fr. Hohman continues as the chaplain of the club.

SAC Faculty Display Presented At World's Fair

The work of two faculty members of the School for American Craftsmen will be on display in an exhibit entitled "The American Craftsman" which will be held this summer in New York City in connection with the New York World's Fair.

Prof. Wendell Castle will have on exhibit four pieces of furniture and Prof. Frans Wildenhain will display examples of work in ceramics.

The exhibit will include work of 25 of America's finest craftsmen who were invited on the basis of their skill. Their work is exhibited in considerable depth because of the small number of craftsmen chosen to participate.

At the present time, Prof. Castle has a one-man exhibition of 14 pieces of his furniture on display at Shop One.

Shop One is a local craft gallery located at 77 Troup St.

Alumni Judge for Spring Weekend

The RIT Alumni Association, through the Student Contact Committee of its Executive Council, took an active part in this year's Spring Weekend in the form of favors and awards.

Three alumni served as the official judges for the Spring Weekend Committee. They judged outdoor advertising and floats in the parade. Serving as judges were: Gene W. Moffit, '60, Richard Burandt, '62, and Chadbourne V. Hickey, '36, all graduates of the School of Art & Design.

Harris Rusitzky (FA '56), Chairman of the Student Contact Committee, was celebrating his 10th anniversary as Spring Weekend Chairman, and presented a gift that was raffled at the Friday night picnic. In addition, the committee presented each individual attending the Sunday afternoon concert with a memento of the weekend. A keychain with the weekend symbol was selected as the favor.

In past years the Association has

Evening College Awards BS Degree

For the first time since it was authorized to grant degrees, the Evening College at RIT will award bachelor of science degrees at Convocation ceremonies June 6.

Eight students in the Evening College have completed requirements for the bachelor of science degree in applied science.

The students and their places of employment are: Lloyd F. Bean, 212 Chatham Gardens, Xerox; Roger A. Drexler, 1506 Middle Rd., Henrietta, Eastman Kodak; J. Keith Johnson, 11 Hillsborough St., Fairport, Xerox; John G. Kress, 320 Galahad Dr., Rochester Products; Leonard J. McCowan, 81 Anytrell Dr., Webster, Eastman Kodak; William V. 119 Awards Presented at Athletic Banquet

by Nick Cerchio

Labors of the year were rewarded last Thursday night when the Institute honored over 100 athletes at the annual awards banquet. The awards ran the gamut from a mere mentioning of a name to the most coveted presentation that can be made to an RIT athlete, the Outstanding Athlete Award.

John Ferrante (Pr 4) was named Outstanding Athlete of the year. He also won the Outstanding Cross Country Runner Award.

Ferrante, a Rochesterian, is a graduate of Edison Tech where he was Section Five champion in cross country track. He maintains a high scholastic average and is a member of Gamma Epsilon Tau, honorary printing fraternity, and the Society for the Advancement of Management. He is captain of the cross country and track teams.

The awards were studded with new trophies presented by APO, SAM, and NRH. They presented the Outstanding Baseball, Golf, Cross Country and Sabre Fencer honors respectively.

Doug Gustin of Vestal, N. Y., a third year student in the School of Business Administration, received the Outstanding Basketball Player Award. He participates in other varsity sports and is a mem-

A local resident, Jack Piechota, was the recipient of the new Outstanding Golfer Award. He is finishing up his college career in the Mechanical Dept., and compiled a 23-3-1 record in his three years of varsity competition.

All-Stater Doug Mantegna took home the Outstanding Soccer Player Award. A resident of Honeoye Falls, he is a third year student in the School for American Craftsmen, and in addition to his soccer abilities is an avid figure skater.

Members of the fencing team were presented two awards: an overall award and an award earmarked for a member of the sabre squad. The overall award, presented by Sigma Pi, went to Mike Geissinger, a senior in the School of Photography. Geissinger is from Huntingdon, Pa., and par-

Wild Strawberries

On May 29 the Talisman Film Festival will present the last in its current series of great films, Ingmar Bergman's "Wild Strawberries." Showings will be at 4, 6, 8 and 10 p.m., in the Student Activities Center. The cost is 50 cents per person.

This is an excellent choice to round out the Talisman series. Tennessee Williams has called it a "true and poetic film, the finest I have ever seen in years.

Outstanding

This year's choice for the Athlete of the Year was indeed a good one. John Ferrante has done more than his share of work for athletics at RIT.

Even though the choice that was made is final, there were many who were extremely critical after the announcement of the choice was made. The people making the criticisms ran the gamut from students to coaches and all had the same person in mind as a better candidate.

Evidently there was something wrong in the method in which the Athlete of the Year was selected. There should be no question in the minds of anyone as to the "best man for the job." Yet there were those who did not realize what they were doing, and I was one of them, when they criticized the choice of John Ferrante.

A person who has been selected Athlete of the Year is without a doubt one of the most honored persons on the campus. To have to hear others criticize you and say that you are unworthy can be, at the least, upsetting.

As a remedy, there is none. Nothing can take away the pain that is caused by nonconstructive criticism. In the future, perhaps the committee that makes the choice should try to look more carefully into the situation so that there will not be another incident such as this one.

Off the Track

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the person or persons responsible for making up the honored guest list for the Awards Banquet, for including my name. I was indeed surprised and delighted that I was considered to be an honored guest . . . for the information of one Keith Mosley my poll was not rigged. It may have been a little slanted, but not rigged . . . I am now inclined to believe the currently circulating story as to how Mr. Mosley sprained his ankle. . . since my favorite member of our administration enjoyed having his name appear in my column and associated with athletic scholarships, I will put it in again. Dr. James Wilson . . . my apologies to Laurie Catallo for having to ask why she was in attendance at the Awards Banquet . . . congratulations to Chris Hoagland on being appointed to the position of Sports Editor of the Reporter for next year . . . thanks to all of you who have offered me words of encouragement or advice at times throughout the year. All that you had to say was appreciated and helpful . . . good night Pancakes, wherever you are.

Netmen Streak to 6th Win; Drop Brockport and Alfred

The RIT netmen won their fifth straight match Saturday at Brockport. The match was undecided until the number three doubles.

Steve Foster and John Helms were heroes for the day as they broke a 4-4 tie in the number three doubles match with a close 6-4, 8-6 Tiger triumph.

In the singles, Bob Costanza won an easy 6-4, 6-2 match against the Brockport captain. Yasuji Tohjo clobbered his number two man 6-0, 6-2, and Chris Delbert squeaked out a 6-4, 7-9, 6-2 win. Foster, Helms and Worth lost leaving a 3-3 tie at the end of the singles.

The doubles were equally close. Costanza and Delbert won in three sets 6-0, 3-6, 6-3. Worth and Tohjo were dropped 11-9, 6-2 by the number two Brockport team. The pressure was on Foster and Helms who both dropped their singles matches.

Foster and Helms cleaned their opponents' clocks 6-4, 8-6, giving the Tigers their sixth straight win and a 6-1 record for the season, the best of any spring sport this year.

Tiger Track Team

Loses to Roberts

The newly formed track team participated in a dual meet with Roberts Wesleyan on May 18. Although the Tigers lost the meet, 82-63, there were many notable victories for the Techmen.

Bill Brown took three firsts in the 100 yard dash, broad jump, and hop, skip, and jump. He turned in a distance of 22' 6" in the broad jump, 43' 8" in the hop, skip, and jump, and a time of 10.1 in the 100 yard dash, which tied him for first with RIT's Dave Gustin.

In other events, Dick Sawyer and Dick Poole took a 1-2 finish in the 440 and John Ferrante was third in both the one and two mile runs. RIT also posted a win in the mile relay which was run by Bill Brown, Dick Poole, Dick Sawyer, and Pete Kozowyk.

In the field events, Dick Poole took a second in the high jump, Gunnar Klinga a first in the shot put, and Pete Kozowyk a third in the javelin.

The team made it six in a row when they edged Alfred University 5-4 on the latter's home courts.

The Techmen swept the first three singles and took the number one doubles, and then had to sweat it out until the final doubles before scoring the clincher.

Yasuji Tohjo and Chris Delbert kept their unbeaten singles records intact, while Bob Costanza tallied his sixth win in seven starts in the top spot for the Tigers.

Singles

Costanza (RIT) def. Phelps (AU) 6-4, 6-2; Tohjo (RIT) def. Douglass (AU) 6-0, 6-2; Delbert (RIT) def. Hewson (AU) 6-4, 7-9, 6-2; Bushman (AU) def. Worth (RIT) 6-1, 6-1; Gubenko (AU) def. Foster (RIT) 6-1, 6-1; Huff (AU) def. Helms (RIT) 6-2, 6-4.

Campus Rally

More than 800 workers assembled at RIT's new campus site just south of Jefferson Rd., last Tuesday for the first Campaigners Rally in the upcoming RIT New Campus Fund drive which kicks off this fall.

The rally featured guided tours of the future academic site, followed by a dinner and evening meeting.

The workers were addressed by Arthur L. Stern, president of RIT's Board of Trustees

Golfers Lose Second Match

Alfred University handed the golf team their second loss of the season last Wednesday, defeating the linkmen 5-4 in their final match of the season. The loss gave the Tigers an 8-2-1 record for the '64 spring season.

Alfred's number one man was low for the day, shooting an even 70 against Tiger captain Tim Butler. Jack Piechota and Larry Smith were low men for the Institute. Both had 75's.

The Tigers lost their first match to Utica two weeks ago after 27 consecutive wins and a tie over the last three years.
