An opportunity for DOC students to gain work experience and have a chance to apply their educational experience and knowledge in a practical manner is now available.

A mid-sized Rochester-area graphic design company, Mill Race Design Associates, with select client base seeks a production artist/junior designer. The ideal candidate is highly proficient in Quark (PC platform), has a keen graphic eye, excellent organizational skills and attention to detail, and good communication skills.

Applicants should also be comfortable with Photoshop and Illustrator. Web building skills are considered a plus. Starting Part-time 10-15 hours/ wk. $12-15/hr depending on ability. Send resume and link to online portfolio samples (or PDFs, max 1-2 MB total) to kda@mill-race.com.

Interested parties may also contact Amy Holowczenko at 585.232.1180.

An e-newsletter published occasionally by the Department of Communication and distributed to students and their family, alumni, faculty and others who have expressed an interest in communication.
