

CMT Graduate Earns a Promotion

Bruce A. Austin baagl@rit.edu

2 November 2007

Rashad Bayramov (CMT, '04) was recently appointed Publications and Employee Programs Team Leader for British Petroleum. In this new role Rashad leads a team responsible for Compass magazine, as well as Employee Engagement, Sponsorship and Helios Awards Programmes. Rashad continues to provide expertise on brand related issues.

Rashad joined BP Azerbaijan as Brand Officer in 2004 after receiving a master's degree in Communication & Media. Since then he developed a strong track record leading key projects such as BP Brand Research in Azerbaijan and playing an important role in developing crisis communications preparedness.

An e-newsletter published occasionally by the Department of Communication and distributed to students and their family, alumni, faculty and others who have expressed an interest in communication.