

DOC Students Present Senior Thesis Research

The Department of Communication invites the RIT community to attend research presentations by its Professional & Technical Communication and Advertising & Public Relations seniors. Six students will present their research on Friday, 11 May at 8:00 a.m. in 07-1560.

We invite you to attend these presentations:

Katherine Robert, “Measuring the Effects of Viewing Surgery Reality Television Programs Upon College Students’ Self-esteem and Body-image Satisfaction”

Ceara Moculski, “The Persuasiveness of Jim Jones: A Textual Analysis of the Jonestown ‘Death Tape’”

Ronnie Li, “Gender Stereotypes in Disney Movies”

Shannon Kelley, “Beyond Ink: A Feminist Analysis of Tattoos as Nonverbal Communication”

Megan Dingler, “Tuesdays With Morrie: Generic Criticism of Self Help”

Patrick Matuszak, “Investigating ‘The Hacker Manifesto’: A Look at Paranoid Style of Prophetic Discourse in the Technological Era”