This past summer PTC graduate Brandon Borgna worked as public relations specialist for NY State Senator Charles Schumer. In addition to his PR responsibilities, he wrote several significant grant proposals.

Presently, Brandon works part-time at RIT's University News Services. One of his current projects is coordinating the PR and media for RIT's end of the FIRST Robotics Competition, held here in March; and, he is part of the team promoting and marketing the May 2008 Imagine Festival on campus. Brandon is scheduled to be complete his RIT MBA degree in May.
