

Business and Liberal Arts Career Fair Welcomes Communication Majors

Bruce A. Austin baagll@rit.edu

6 February 2008

On Thursday, February 14, the Rochester Area Career Expo hosts its annual "Business and Liberal Arts Career Fair," at the Double Tree Hotel, on Jefferson Road at East Henrietta, from 1:00 to 5:00 pm. The large-scale recruiting event includes employers from businesses, health care, non-profit and government agencies seeking to employ area college graduates, including those with communication degrees.

For more information, including a list of participating companies and job descriptions, visit the website of the Rochester Area Career Expo:

<http://www.racda.org/RACE.htm>

And don't forget to polish your resume. The Co-op office, in the Bausch & Lomb Building, offers walk-in resume reviews daily from 9:30-11:30 and 1:30-3:30.