

Wolk Center for the Deaf at RIT

February 1, 1998

The Wolk Center for the Deaf at RIT is an exciting program for Jewish Deaf students to become familiar with and express their identity as Jews. This program provides cultural, educational, and social activities that connect students to Jewish tradition, the Jewish community, and one another. Many of the Wolk programs are open to members of the general Rochester Deaf Jewish community so that students and community members have the opportunity to meet each other and celebrate Jewish holidays and events together.

The Wolk Center for the Deaf and Hillel are hosting a Purim party, which will be held from 2-5 pm, Sunday, March 15, at the Interfaith Center on the RIT campus. Music, food, drinks and games will be provided. Vicki Hurwitz, student development educator with NTID's Student Life Team, will tell a story of Purim. The party is free and open to the general community. For more information, contact Melinda Weinrib, Program Director, at 475-7608 TTY or mmweinrib@juno.com (e-mail).
