

ASL Lecture Series features Gallimore

January 1, 1999

NTID's ASL Lecture Series continues with the presentation of "Diversity: The Change of Heart," by Laurene E. Gallimore at noon, Friday, February 5, in the Robert F. Panara Theatre. The presentation will be voice interpreted through headsets and is open to the public. Gallimore is a culturally Deaf African-American educator who also is a Ph.D. candidate at the University of Arizona in Tucson. She is currently Coordinator/Professor of Teacher Preparation in the Deaf Education Program at the Western Oregon University in Monmouth.
