26 March 2008

All Department of Communication students – undergrads and grads – are invited to attend a lecture by Dr. Timothy Gleason on Friday, 28 March, beginning at 10 a.m. in 01-3381. Dr. Gleason is a finalist for a full-time faculty position with the Department.

In addition to attending his lecture, DOC students are invited to share their thoughts about Dr. Gleason as a teacher. Dr. Keith Jenkins chairs the search committee for this DOC faculty position and is eager to learn your response to Dr. Gleason's lecture. Write Dr. Jenkins with your comments at kjgpt@rit.edu.
