

NTID community members lead Dummy Hoy crusade

February 20, 2000

Retired Professor Emeritus Robert F. Panara and Matthew Moore, SVP'77, 1983 RIT social work graduate, are leading a Rochester-based crusade to gain the admission of William "Dummy" Hoy to the National Baseball Hall of Fame. This effort on behalf of Hoy, a deaf man who played professional baseball in the 1880s and who is informally credited with inspiring baseball's hand signals, was featured in the Sunday, February 20, 2000, Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.
