

Rubin appointed SAISD director

March 1, 2000

Dr. Gerry Buckley, Associate Dean of NTID Student Affairs, SVP'74, '78, is pleased to announce the appointment of Jeff Rubin as the new director of Substance and Alcohol Intervention Services for the Deaf (SAISD). Rubin is a graduate of RIT's social work program and has worked in the field of addiction for more than 20 years. He completed his graduate studies at SUNY Buffalo and served as director of the East House prior to his recent appointment. Rubin is actively involved in a number of professional organizations in the Rochester area and brings a wealth of experience to SAISD.

SAISD provides resources for deaf and hard-of-hearing people with substance abuse problems, their families and friends, and professionals who work with deaf substance abusers.
